MANY NEW FACES AT CAPITAL

Democratic House and Republican Senate to Confer on Taft Measure

Unusual Attention Directed to the Convening of the the Lawmakers Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The interesting situation of a Democratic House and a Republican Senate meeting to consider a Taft administration measure directs unusual attention to the convening of the Sixty-second Congress in extraordinary session at noon tomorrow. The political complexion of the two branches of Congress will be as follows:

House—Democrats, 228; Republicans, 160; Socialists, 1; vacancies, 2—the Ninth Iowa and Second Pennsylvania districts.

Senate—Republicans, 50; Democrats, 41; vacancy 1—from Colorado.

The roll calls in the two branches will show some remarkable changes from the last session. In the House the Democrats will show a gain of 54 members and the Republicans a loss of 53, the Socialist, Victor Berger of Milwaukee, accounting for the difference in the equation.

MANY NEW FACES.

By reason of the change resulting from the last November election new faces will be seen not only in the membership in the House, but in the whole organization. Republican employees in great number will go out and their places will be filled by Democrats. Instead of the 53 Republicans who occupied seats in the Senate on March 4 there will be only 50 tomorrow. The ranks of the minority will be increased from 32 to 41 and to 42 when the vacancy in Colorado is filled. There is one vacancy in the last session, caused by the late Senator Hughes of Colorado.

More notable even than the large number of new faces in the Senate and House will be the absence of so many veteran legislators. Chief among these whose absence will loom large will be Tamm of Minnesota, Boutwell of Illinois, Scott of Kansas, McKinley of California, Bennett, Fish, Parsons and Coker of New York, Hall of Michigan, Keifer of Ohio. Cannon will appear in the ranks of the minority. Four members, Hitchcock of Nebraska, Folger of Washington, Gronna of North Dakota and Townsend of Oregon, have been elevated to the Senate.

ALDRICH IS GONE.

No longer will the Senate roll call open with the familiar name of Aldrich, the Rhode Island leader having voluntarily renounced another term to devote himself to leisure and the study of monetary reforms. He will be succeeded by Henry F. Lippitt. Many other striking changes will be made from the Senate floor, notably Hale of Maine, succeeded by Charles F. Johnson; Beveridge of Indiana, who was vanquished by John W. Kern; Keen of New York, whose place will be taken by James E. McInerney; Missouri, replaced by James A. Reed; Dick of Ohio, replaced by Atlee Pomerene; Carter of Montana, succeeded by Henry J. Meyer; while the place of Senator Dewey was filled by the election of Justice James A. O'Gorman. All of these changes represent Democratic gains except in the case of Rhode Island.

The other Senate changes will be Frazier of Tennessee, succeeded by Luke Lee, the youngest of all the Senators; Money of Mississippi, whose place will be filled by John Sharp Williams, formerly the Democratic leader in the House; Flint of California, succeeded by John D. Works; Bulkeley of Connecticut, who gives way to George P. McLean, formerly Governor of that State; Burrows of Michigan, whose mantle is to be worn

PREMIER JOSE CANALEJAS, who is given free reign by Alfonso.

CANALEJAS IS GIVEN FULL SWAY

MADRID, April 3.—The Canalejas ministry as reorganized was gazetted today. The changes were indicated by the Premier, who was given free reign by King Alfonso as a condition on which he withdrew his resignation of Saturday. The ministers announced are:

$411,869 Estate Left by Widow of Prof. Kellogg

Martin Kellogg, president of the University of California for many years prior to his death, gives it a value of $411,869.55. The estate consists of promissory notes, stocks and bonds and cash to the amount of $310,869.55, and the remainder is Berkeley real estate valued at $99,000. Mrs. Kellogg owned ninety-two separate pieces of realty in the university city and one parcel of land in San Diego county of nominal value.

SUBWAY UP BEFORE BOARD

Supervisor Kelley Sets Ball Rolling for Road Under Estuary.

The Committee Asks That Engineers Be Appointed to Outline Work.

At the instance of Supervisor Kelley, the subject of ascertaining necessary facts for the construction of a subway under the estuary to connect Oakland and Alameda, was referred by the Board of Supervisors to the committee of the whole, with the understanding that the latter would make a report as to what preliminary steps should be taken within two weeks.

Supervisor Kelley is the father of the project and aided in the passing of a bill on the subject at the last session of the legislature, enabling the supervisors to appropriate not to exceed $3500 for the purpose of making preliminary surveys to determine what kind of soil the subway will have to run through, as also other facts necessary to guide the supervisors on the prosecution of the work.

ASK FIRST STEPS.

The matter was brought to the attention of the supervisors this morning by the appearance before that body of three members of the Oakland-Alameda subway committee, which latter is composed of residents of both cities.

The representatives were C. K. Rhodin, the chairman of the committee; C. R. Smith and Dr. T. L. Carpenter. The chairman presented the following self-explanatory resolution setting forth the instructions under which the committee was acting:

"The Alameda-Oakland subway committee by resolution instructed the chairman to name a sub-committee of five or more to appear before your body.

"Said committee was nominated, called to meeting, and after due discussion, adopted the following March 28, 1911:

"Whereas, The Alameda-Oakland subway committee is aware that a large amount of educational work must be done for the subway both in the past and on record as ready to assist in such educational work by means of a special delegation; and

"Whereas, It is desirable and urgent that the education shall have available a person fully conversant with all the data pertaining to the location, construction and planning of said subway; now therefore be it

Resolved, That this committee respectfully requests that the Board or Supervisors appoint two engineers to act jointly in the preparation of surveys, plans and specifications and estimates of the subway, one of said engineers to be appointed from a name of names submitted by the Alameda-Oakland subway committee provided any such names be acceptable to the Board of Supervisors.

Besides those named the other members of the committee are as follows: Councilman F. L. Krumb of Alameda; Dr. Charles T. J. Rosen of Alameda; J. McClellan, all of Alameda, and A. A. Denison of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce; Wilbur Walker, secretary of the Merchant's Exchange of the city and W. H. L. Hynes of Alameda.

The visitors were granted the courtesy of the floor.

Rodin said the legislature had passed a bill enabling the supervisors to appoint two engineers to act jointly in the preparation of surveys, plans and specifications and estimates of the subway, one of said engineers to be appointed from a name of names submitted by the Alameda-Oakland subway committee provided any such names be acceptable to the Board of Supervisors.

LOSE HOPE OF FINDING MAN ALIVE

Not Even Clew Discovered to Whereabouts of Missing Guy Landsberg.

Tan Shoe Washed Up on South Shore Disclaimed by Parents.

ALAMEDA, April 3.—A tan shoe washed up on the south shore at the Neptune gardens yesterday and found by Richard Bennett, led the police to believe that it might have been worn by Guy Landsberg, of whom no trace has been found and whose disappearance in San Francisco last Monday night is still baffling the officers.

The shoe was taken to the Landsberg home at 1200 Bay street for identification by Policeman Keyes, but Mrs. Landsberg, the mother of the youth, stated that it was not the kind of shoe worn by her son when he left his home. All hope of finding the youth alive has vanished among his family and friends.

NO CLEW FOUND.

With a week's earnest search revealing no trace of his whereabouts, or even unearthing a clew that would lead the San Francisco police to believe that they would locate him, his companions with whom he visited Barbary coast resorts, clinging to the belief that he has been drowned.

George Landsberg, the father of the man, who is in Alaska, is still in ignorance of his son's disappearance. Mrs. Landsberg stated today that there was no way of notifying her husband, who would probably first hear of the case through the daily press.

Charges may be preferred against Police Clerk Walter Jacoby who was with the three youths when Landsberg dropped from sight last Monday night.

March Banner Building Month in Oakland

More Permits Were Issued Than in Any Other Like Period in Years.

With one exception the past month was the banner thirty days for building permits issued in the City of Oakland for many years. The statement issued by Max Mantel, cashier of the Board of Public Works this morning, shows 355 building permits issued in the month of March and representing a total capital investment of $1,027,756.45.

The month of March, 1910, registered only $310,471.00. The largest single month of the records of the building department is that of April, 1910, when the total money invested was $1,644,194. The large record made last month was due in part to the issuance of a permit for the H. C. Capwell building, and in part to the permit of a $100,000 apartment house.

BERKELEY HEARS OF RUMOR

Pique Over Hodghead Defeat Said to Have Driven Four From Field

Little Hope That Socialist Mayor-Elect Will Have Working Majority in Council

BERKELEY, April 3.—As an aftermath of the victory of J. Stitt Wilson over Beverly L. Hodghead for the mayoralty of Berkeley, a rumor of mysterious origin furnished political gossip in the college city today. A report was started that several Good Government candidates were to withdraw from the race for the election April 22. It was stated that R. A. Berry and F. F. Connor, candidates for councilmen; Mrs. Hume and Elmer E. Nichols, candidates for school director, were to withdraw in pique on account of the defeat of Mayor Hodghead. It was declared that this arrangement was the result of a conference of the Good Government Club members held this morning.

It was found, however, that there had been no formal meeting of the club as Arthur Arlett its president, did not arrive in Berkeley until nearly noon from a long Sunday automobile trip and then retired to his bed after denying that he had attended any such meeting.

Berry stated emphatically that he had no intention of withdrawing, although he had heard the rumor and believed that it had originated in South Berkeley. Mrs. Hume had not even heard the report. Connor and Nichols could not be reached early this afternoon.

NOBODY WORRYING.

There is but little anxiety among the appointive officers at the city hall, following the election of J. Stitt Wilson as mayor at Saturday's primary.

Although they hold their positions at the pleasure of the City Council, of which the mayor is president, it is not likely that Wilson will secure a majority in that body and be able to effect any changes. That is the way the appointed heads of departments size up their political future today. It appears to be a simple question of votes in the Council.

John A. Wilson is the only Socialist who is to be voted for with the other three candidates for the two positions of councilmen at the second election April 22. The two candidates who receive the highest vote will be declared elected. Wilson received the smallest number of votes of any of the four leaders at Saturday's election, which was 1343. The vote for the others was as follows: R. A. Berry; E. Q. Turner, 1899; and Fred F. Connor, 1752.

WILL WAGE CAMPAIGN.

Wilson's chances of being elected as councilman and supporter of Mayor Wilson in that body depend largely upon the campaign that is to be waged by the Socialists, with J. Stitt Wilson as leader, before April 22. Wilson, the candidate for councilman, will be called upon by his party leader to jump from fourth place in the primary balloting to first or second place in the final contest.

There is much speculation as to how the votes which were cast for Francis W. Reid and E. E. Newton, independent candidates for councilmen, have been eliminated, will be distributed among the four aspirants in the coming struggle. Wilson is counting largely upon this support.

He is practically certain of the backing of those who voted for him Saturday and for A. F. Wald, another Socialist, who was put out of the running at the primary.

Reid spoke from the Socialist platform

Attendance Records Broken At the Opening of Idora Park

Scene at the Idora Park band stand yesterday.

With the formal opening of Idora Park yesterday all past records of attendance were surpassed. San Francisco sent almost 20,000 people to Oakland's big amusement grounds and, from 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when Don Philipini and his fifty-piece band dedicated the mammoth theater of music, until after midnight, the merry makers thronged the grounds, filling every concession and taxing the amphitheater and board walk promenade to capacity. The countless diversions which furnished amusement for yesterday's visitors will be under full swing every afternoon and evening this week, with daily change of program.

While the various fun-divices, numbering such new thrillers as Laughter Lane, the Chocolate Drop, the Mirror Dip, the Oriental Striker and the Chicken Farm, view for patronage yesterday, it was the eccentric Don Philipini and his splendid band, the singing of Hazel Wainwright and the Spanish dancers that claimed the greatest attention. Philipini is the most temperamental conductor that has ever been seen at Idora.

The soprano solos of Miss Wainwright were a notable feature of the program and the "Waltz Madrid" of the Le Ortiz dancers captivated the amphitheater audiences. A powerful searchlight located on the top of the theater building did spotlight duty for the dancers with dazzling effect. All of these attractions will continue in the amphitheater for the remainder of this week and the big structure will probably be the daily scene of larger audiences, for with it the Idora management has solved the problem of protecting its patrons from the wind and weather.

Following is the musical program for this evening:

1. Overture, Barber of Seville.....Rossini
2. Act IV from Traviata.....Verdi
3. Waltz, Visione.....Blom
4. Hazel Wainwright, soprano.....Selected
5. My Old Kentucky Home.....Dabney
6. Thirty Minutes Interruption.....
7. Overture, Stabat Mater.....Mercadante
8. A Vision of Solome.....Strauss
9. Le Artiz Troupe, Spanish Dancers.....
10. Struggle for Glory.....Philipini

LAW TO THROTTLE CROWING ROOSTER

Piedmont Determined to Sleep Late Despite Nature of the Fowl.

Chanticleers of exclusive Piedmont in the hills must keep to their laurels now for if Mayor Hugh Craig and his board of trustees succeed at the next meeting of the town fathers, it will no longer be safe for the crowing roosters of early dawn to make themselves heard. It is anticipated that an ordinance prepared by City Attorney Ballantine will be presented at that time through which power will be given Marshal Rose to immediately place under arrest any fowl that takes it upon himself to disturb the sleeping residents of the classic community.

A great many of the families living in the hills keep chickens and the City Attorney, as well as the Mayor, are among them. Both have endeavored from time to time upon the complaint of their neighbors to restrain their respective flocks from annoying them, but all in vain. Attorney Ballantine hit upon the scheme of placing the fathers of the crow in the basement each night, but with the first peep of daylight they crowed louder than ever. Then he muzzled them, but they died, and now, for the benefit of others who seek to retain their feathered pets, yet eliminate the annoyance, he has suggested that a reward be offered by the trustees to anyone who proposes a satisfactory method of preserving the silence in Piedmont during the hours that the majority of the people seek slumber. The matter will, therefore, be one of the chief topics for discussion at the next meeting of the board.

VICTIM OF TRAIN DIES IN HOSPITAL

Charles Onsbey Run Down and Fatally Injured by Local.

Charles Onsbey, a marine fireman and a member of the crew of the Norwegian steamer Shark, died at 7 o'clock last night at the Receiving Hospital from injuries he sustained when he was struck at noon yesterday at Seventh street and Broadway by a west-bound Southern Pacific local.

Onsbey attempted to dash across the street ahead of the incoming train, but was unable to make it and the locomotive ran him down. His left arm and leg were cut off near the trunk and he sustained internal injuries. The victim was 34 years old.

FORMER SLEUTH FALLS INTO ARMS OF LAW

SAVANNAH, April 3.—Julius Stark, a former city detective, who disappeared from Savannah under a cloud of suspicion several months ago, has been arrested in Los Angeles and will be brought to this city to answer two charges of forgery which have been made against him by the Grand Jury. The arrest was made at the request of the Savannah authorities, whose agents have been continually on Stark's trail. Officers have started for California by way of Atlanta, where they will stop long enough to secure the necessary requisition papers.

The indictments against Stark make charges that he forged the name of D. Schwartz to a note for $75 and the name of Sam Blumenfeld to another for $50. He also became involved with a Statesboro man, to whom he had sold a restaurant and bar in the tenderloin district. After making several purchases on credit, Stark disappeared and his appearance in Los Angeles was the first heard of him by the local police since his flight.

BEATEN SENSELESS BY HIS BROTHER

Indians Indulge in Alcoholic Love Feast; One Goes to Hospital.

NILES, April 3.—Becoming involved in a drunken brawl in the Indian camp near here yesterday afternoon, Morton Goosman, an Indian, was thrown to the ground by his brother, Antonio, and pounded over the head with a stone until he was rendered unconscious. Blood flowed from many cuts and abrasions on his head and face.

After beating him until he was senseless, Antonio and his followers kicked the victim in the ribs and after throwing a bucket of water over his limp form left him lying on the ground to die.

The injured man was picked up later by Constable Roderick who brought him to Niles and sent him to the County Infirmary where he is now lying between life and death. Two brothers were arrested while lying on a bed in a bunk house. He was brought to Oakland and lodged in the County Jail where he will await the outcome of his brother's wounds.

HAYWARD, April 3.—Antone Ganda, one of the oldest residents in Hayward and for many years coachman in the service of the William A. Meek family of this city was drowned in the San Joaquin river near Antioch late Saturday night.

From the report of the tragedy received by the Meek family it appears that Ganda had gone fishing with two companions early in the day and was late returning home when a sudden shift of the small craft caused the man to lose his balance and plunge into the river. Although a search was kept up all night no trace of the body could be found.

Borries appeared in court on crutches. He was very weak and could hardly stand without the help of his attorney. A local physician states that it is doubtful whether he will live through the trial. Although the bullet wounds in his body received in the fight with the officers after the shooting of Madison have entirely healed, he is very weak from the loss of blood and the dark confinement in the county jail, where he was removed shortly after his discharge from the hospital.

PLUNGE TO DEATH WITH STAGE COACH

Driver Killed and Four Passengers Hurt Near Point Arena.

POINT ARENA, April 3.—One person was killed and five others badly hurt when a stage coach overturned and plunged to the foot of a rocky pass, a distance of about 100 feet, near Stewart's Point. The victims were:

DEAD.
THOMAS HITCHCOCK, of Guadalupe, driver of the coach.

INJURED.
WILLIAM H. and Mrs. Bonney of San Francisco.

G. Bortini, farmhand, of Point Arena. Pedro Valentini, laborer, Point Arena. Unidentified man.

The accident is believed to have been caused by one of the horses stumbling as the coach rounded a sharp curve in the narrow road. Hitchcock was thrown from his seat and the heavy coach rolled over him, inflicting internal injuries, from which he died in a short time.

Mrs. Bonney sustained a compound fracture of the left hip, in addition to numerous cuts and bruises about the head, body and limbs. She was rendered unconscious by the shock of her fall. Bonney attempted to save Mrs. Bonney from injury, but was unable to clear the side of the coach. He sustained a fracture of the shoulder blade as well as many cuts and bruises. The couple are in a San Francisco hospital, where they are doing well.

Bertini and Valentini were cut and bruised, but were not seriously hurt. The identity of the other passenger who was injured is not known. His injuries were not serious. He walked several miles to secure aid for the victims of the accident.

SUCCESS FOR VICTIMS.

Word was received at Point Arena by telephone. Stewart's Point is about twenty miles from Point Arena, but the distance was soon covered by the rescue parties consisting of Manager J. C. Holliday of the stage company and Dr. Frank Biddle, who went in an automobile.

The injured passengers were brought to this city after receiving emergency treatment. Bonney and his wife were sent to San Francisco. Of the other passengers Bertini was the more seriously hurt.

The horses were not killed. The king-bolt key was loosened and the rear truck and the main body of the coach went down the canyon, leaving the forward truck and the horses in the road. The coach was demolished, except the two forward wheels and the pole.

PASSENGERS ESCAPE INJURY.

GRAND VALLEY, April 3.—Of the four injured when the stage overturned and plunged into the canyon, a mile below Camptonville, only Theodore Wayman, driver of the coach, is believed to have been seriously injured. The others, who were Miss Ada King, Misses Bernice and Beatrice Kimball, escaped with but slight injuries. Wayman's injuries are considered dangerous.

The young women riding in Wayman's coach were thrown from their seats and hurled to the road. Wayman was carried over the cliff, but fell off the vehicle as it overturned the first time.

The coach and horses rolled to the bottom of the embankment, a distance of about 100 feet. Both horses were killed and the coach was wrecked.

STARS OF ILL OMEN WERE CAUSE OF HER TROUBLES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The language of the stars, translated in the form of a message by a fortune teller, ended the happiness of Emma E. Beckwith, according to her testimony in a divorce action before Superior Judge Surtevant today. In 1905, she declared, her husband, Arthur Beckwith, visited a seer who took an observation from the heavens and whispered to him that the stars foretold that he would not have happiness in his married life. Hence the desertion and the granting of the decree by the court.

RESCUES BLIND MEN FROM DEATH

Oaklander Pilots Two to Safety When Auto Bears Down.

Through the presence of mind of Charles J. Broad of 3674 Market street last evening, two blind men who reside at the Institute on Telegraph avenue, were saved from serious injuries. If not death, when they became separated and confused while crossing Market street at Thirty-sixth. An automobile had come suddenly upon them and, terrified, neither knew which way to turn for safety, when young Broad rushed to their assistance, piloting them both to the curb at risk to himself. The driver of the auto seemingly lost control and had it not been for the prompt action of Broad, one or both of the blind men would have been seriously injured.

Says There May Be "Some Trimming of Lamps" Necessary.

The president said he realized the immense influence of the church.

"It has been my good fortune," he said, "to know how much the support of militant Methodism contributes to the progress of the government and the civilization of the world."

The president declared that if he had to prepare two or three sermons a week he would retire to a cloister. In closing his remarks he begged to be excused because in view of what is coming tomorrow there may be some trimming of lamps necessary.

WIDOW OF TRACTION MAGNATE IS DEAD

Mrs. Charles F. Yerkes Dies in New York After Five Weeks' Illness.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Mrs. Charles F. Yerkes died at 9:30 o'clock last night after an illness of five weeks. Early in the evening Mrs. Yerkes lost consciousness. She died from heart disease which developed after an attack of grip last November.

About twenty-four years ago Mary Adelaide Moore, daughter of the junior member of the drug firm of Powers, Weichman & Moore of Philadelphia, was married to Charles F. Yerkes, who had only just been released from Cherry Hill Penitentiary, where he had been sentenced after conviction for a crime in connection with a municipal franchise. In order to marry Miss Moore he obtained a divorce from the woman who had been devoted to him while he was in prison for a communication in obtaining a commutation of his sentence.

For the first ten years of her married life Mrs. Yerkes was happy. Then one night her happiness was suddenly blasted. Her husband, who she had believed to be a friend of her husband, who had whispered a scandal in her ear in connection with her husband. That resulted in a separation. Mr. and Mrs. Yerkes never again lived together. Mrs. Yerkes went to Europe and busied herself in the traction field in London. About four years ago Yerkes died from pneumonia after a few days' illness.

Less than twelve months later the widow was married quietly in her home to William Milner. Her second marital experience lasted about one week. A few months later Mrs. Yerkes obtained a divorce.

Big Interest Manifested in Coming Real Estate Auction

In no public offering of residence lots ever previously made in Oakland has there been so much of a genuinely earnest desire to purchase as is being shown in the case of the sixty-eight lots in the Piedmont Terrace-by-the-Lake tract which is being advertised for sale Saturday afternoon by the Layman Real Estate Company. Prospective buyers in great numbers visited the tract yesterday and were deeply impressed by the beauty of the location and surroundings, and the high-class character of the improvements made upon it and neighboring tracts; its proximity to the business center and the convenient street railway transportation facilities afforded by the Grand avenue and Oakland avenue electric car lines. Special study was made of the costly homes erected on the adjoining Adams Point and Linden tracts, which have advanced the frontage value of these properties since their recent improvement from 200 to 250 per cent.

An news of general public interest, it may be stated that since the first announcement of the Piedmont Terrace-by-the-Lake auction sale was made by the Layman Real Estate Company, two inquiries have been made for the lots to be sold on the opposite side of Grand avenue have changed ownership, one for $3500 and the other for $3000. Moreover, the sellers are already contemplating the building of new homes for themselves in the vicinity without delay.

At no time before yesterday has Grand avenue witnessed so many automobiles on it. Throughout the day it was constantly lined by the vehicles bearing parties who inspected the property to be sold and freely expressed a desire to secure lots. All of these visitors were particularly interested in the building activity in progress in the Piedmont Terrace-by-the-Lake tract and the immediate neighborhood, a score or more of costly new residences being in course of construction there.

FACULTY WIRING IN HALL OF RECORDS STARTS DISPUTE

Supervisors' Attention Again Called to Danger of Fire in Building.

KELLEY SCORES MEMBERS FOR DILATORY TACTICS

Declares Matter Should Be Taken Up Before It Is Too Late.

The city electrician has decided that the electric wiring in the office of the county recorder, and in fact in all the apartments of the Hall of Records, is faulty and dangerous, and that it will have to be renewed in order not to endanger the structure from destruction by fire and to comply with the ordinances.

This has caused a dispute among the members of the board meeting this morning, in which Supervisor Kelley took occasion to score the other members for dilatory tactics. Kelley said that it was apparent that there was danger in delay, especially as a short time ago a fire had broken out in the office of the recorder, which had taken place at night would have destroyed the building.

Kelley at the same time paid his attention to Supervisor Foss, who was inquiring into the matter, declaring that the latter never arrived at the meetings of the board on time, never looked into the needs of the county buildings and never kept an appointment to do county work on time.

OFFER TO REWIRE.

The matter was brought before the board by a communication from the Kimball Electric Company, offering to rewire the office of the county recorder with shielded wire at $8 per yard, and at the same time to allow 40 per cent of the list price for material 40 per cent of the conduit cost and 10 per cent of the line, the balance of the material to be furnished at the regular market price. Supervisor Mullins asked how much the work would cost.

Foss joined in the query and in reply Kelley stated that he had been before the supervisors and that all the members certainly had had sufficient time in which to ascertain all the facts of the case. Kelley referred to the fact that he had looked into it. Kelley declared that there had been a communication received two weeks ago from the man who had examined the wiring in the recorder's office, showing that the wiring was in a dangerous condition. Mullins said that the matter had been referred to the building committee with power to act.

Kelley referred to the fact that there was complaint made that there were expensive pieces of work done, but the things complained of were of the best, and recommended and done by the best. Kelley spoke about having the opinion of experts in the matter.

FAVORS EXPERTS.

Kelley said that he was in favor of having work done by experts, but he was also in favor of giving it to men when it could be done. The work in this case had to be done because it was required by the city ordinance. If they wanted to do the work they could do it. If they did not want to do it, they could leave it alone. There was a communication on file which explained the whole matter. There was no need of an expert because the representative of the city had told them what would have to be done. That representative had settled the question. There had been ample time for every member of the board to have had a bid put in for the work if the members had taken the time to look into the matter when it was brought to their attention.

The action of the other members, Kelley declared, showed that they had not taken the time to look into the matter. He said that he was not in favor of the statements which had been made about the expense of improvements. Those were the statements of people who did not know what they were talking about.

INVESTIGATED NEEDS.

He also stated that any time the other members had jobs to be performed in their several districts he had gone to those districts and investigated what was to be done for his own information. Accordingly, when the matters came up before the board he was able to act intelligently on them.

Kelley declared further he had never seen any of those members looking into work around the county buildings, as they ought to as a part of their business. He stated that he had been to the meetings of the supervisors, and that he had never kept an appointment to inspect the work of any kind. He stated on occasion when the speaker, Foss and the district attorney were to visit the juvenile home, he and the district attorney had to wait for more than an hour for the speaker to arrive. Kelley declared that when he was called upon to work on the committee he would be on hand.

ACTION POSTPONED ON HOSPITAL MATTER

Supervisors Will Have District Attorney Pass Upon Bond Issue Subject.

LINES OF PROPOSED PRECINCTS NOT MADE

Legality of Election Depends Upon Accuracy in Establishing Latter.

The supervisors this morning deferred until next Monday at the earliest the presentation of the facts which they wish the district attorney to incorporate in the proposed bond election for the construction of a new county hospital.

County Clerk Cook declared that he had not as yet been able to prepare the lines of the proposed precinct boundaries.

District Attorney Donahue said that it was absolutely necessary for the board to determine exactly where the voting precincts were to be located and to have the election held just in those places, because the location could not be changed after the election had been called. Neither could the names of precinct officers be changed after the men had been appointed. The only change that could be made was that which might be deemed necessary on election day and that had to be made by the citizens.

The same official said that it would be necessary for the board also to call a bond election at a regular meeting of the board, which is held only on the second Monday of each month.

Supervisor Kelley asked why it was necessary to order the election at a regular meeting.

The district attorney stated that it was to satisfy bond buyers who are always careful in ascertaining whether the bonds were ordered issued at that time.

The supervisor also inquired if it were not possible for the board to assemble at the regular meeting and take several continuances, as they did when they were acting as a board of equalization, and still have a regular session all the time.

The district attorney stated that in all other matters, such a course would be allowable, but in the matter of issuing bonds the courts had held that it was necessary for the law to be complied with strictly, and as the rule of the board had set the first Monday of the month as the time for the holding of the regular meeting, the issue would have to be ordered on that day.

The supervisors are to meet in committee next Wednesday to agree upon some of the facts which are desired by the district attorney to enable him to proceed with his part of the preliminary work in the premises.

Seattle Bank Clerk Fears the Mother Will Remove Them to Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Believing that an attempt might be made to kidnap his two children and rush them across the Mexican border, Albert A. Henry, a clerk in the Seattle National Bank, arrived here this morning to search for them. A recent sensational divorce case in the Washington metropolis resulted in the awarding of the little ones to the custody of Henry, who had accused his wife of having had an affair with Foster Kelly, secretary of the bank, who resigned in the midst of the scandalous revelations which occurred during the hearing.

Henry also has a divorce granted a decree to Henry and he was immediately advised by his attorney, C. W. Gates, that the children were believed to be in this city in the custody of a woman who had been married to Henry, however, gave notice that she would appeal the case and an ultimatum came to the husband that an attempt might be made to get the children beyond his reach.

CHARLES G. GATES' WIFE ASKS DIVORCE FOR SWEETHEART

Spouse of Famous Plunger's Son Seeks Release From Bonds of Matrimony.

NEW YORK, April 3.—It was ascertained today through Mrs. Melville A. Martin that her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles G. Gates, had filed suit in this State for a divorce from her husband, son of John W. Gates, but further than that she would not discuss the case. Anson M. Beard, attorney for Mrs. Gates, had nothing to say in regard to the matter and both the interested parties are at present out of town. It is understood that the papers were served on Gates nearly three weeks ago.

Mrs. Gates is believed to be on her way to St. Louis from Atlanta and her husband is at present in Texas looking after some large holdings that he has there. The couple were married November 22, 1898, and since then have lived, when in town, in an apartment house, but most of their time has been spent in other places and in travel. The ceremony took place in St. Louis and there are no children.

GATES IS PROMINENT.

Charles Gates, like his father, has been prominently before the public. In February he made a record-breaking run by special train from Yuma, Ariz., to this city. The record was 3000 miles and the Gates special covered it in seventy-four hours and nineteen minutes, including stops.

The special beat the Twentieth Century's time from Chicago and Gates established a new world's record for long-distance traveling.

RUSHES TO NEW YORK.

Gates injured his leg while cranking an automobile on a ranch near San Diego. Fearing infection might follow he decided to get to New York in a hurry. Melville Martin accompanied him.

On his arrival Gates was taken to his mother's apartment home, where he soon recovered.

Gates was operated upon for appendicitis at the New York Hospital on July 15, after his return from Europe with his wife and father-in-law. After leaving the hospital he took a trip for his health, accompanied by Mrs. Gates.

Charles G. Gates began his business career in the West as a member of many clubs, including the Automobile Club of America, the Atlantic Yacht, the New York Athletic, the Westchester Country, the Columbia Yacht, the Chicago Athletic Association, the Washington Park and the Calumet of Chicago.

SAYS HUBBY IS 'CHRONIC LEAVER'

Appears to Be Moving Day All the Time With John Johnson.

Declaring to Superior Judge Harris that her husband was a "chronic leaver" and could not be satisfied with any home he had with her, Alice Johnson secured an interlocutory decree of divorce this morning from John A. Johnson on the ground of desertion.

Prior to the time she married Johnson in 1905, according to Mrs. Johnson's testimony, he left his mother's home three times "to be on the move and have a change." Then he left his wife without any warning and since the desertion he has changed rooming houses seven times. Mrs. Johnson told the court that she was always a good wife to Johnson but that he was an old bachelor at the time she married him and was so "faddy" that nobody could keep him from "founding about through life" as the notion took him and without any purpose in view.

Several months after the separation, the court was also informed, Mrs. Johnson accidentally met her husband one day at the home of a mutual friend. She said "How do you do?" to which salutation Johnson replied, "How do you ducks get to the court like at the time she had a lot of ducks."

proprate not more than $3500 for the making of surveys for the construction of a subway under the harbor, between this city and Alameda. He asked that the work be inaugurated.

Dr. T. L. Carpenter said the people of Alameda were very anxious that the matter be taken up and acted upon as soon as possible.

Councilman Krumb said he endorsed what the other two had said and that the county of Alameda would co-operate in the matter.

RECEIVES ENDORSEMENT.

Supervisor Kelley stated that the building of a subway had been taken up by the civic organizations of Oakland and Alameda and had recently been discussed at a meeting in Alameda which he had attended. He had given the matter a great deal of thought and also a great deal of study.

It had been discussed by the Merchants' Exchange and the Chamber of Commerce of Oakland, and also by the city council of Alameda. It had been commended by every civic organization in the city of Alameda. It had in fact been universally considered a good thing.

The sub-committee had met in Alameda last week and he had met with them. He felt that the board of supervisors should act speedily in the matter. The last legislature had passed an act providing that the supervisors might appropriate not to exceed $3500 for the purpose of making necessary surveys to help in carrying out the project.

The building of a subway under the harbor of Oakland and Alameda was a great necessity, he said. It would connect the two cities in a much more satisfactory manner. The traffic on the Webster street bridge was getting so great that the structure was scarcely able to stand. It was a serious impediment to the business men of Oakland and Alameda for the reason that their business was thereby greatly impaired.

HINDERS SHIPPING.

The obstruction of the bridge on that street was also a hindrance to navigation because it prevented the easy passage of vessels in and out of the inner harbor which was just as sure of development as was the outer stream.

Special attention was directed to this fact by the chairman of the congressional committee on harbors and rivers who had visited the scene several years ago in company with Congressman McCallister, who had said that Oakland and Alameda were the finest harbors in the world but that they could not expect to extend their commerce unless they had done away with the bridges which were a serious impediment.

The removal of these obstructions would greatly increase the value of the adjoining property, Kelley said. In fact, the city of Alameda had already taken property on the city would pay the cost of the improvement. Kelley moved, therefore, that the matter be referred to the committee of the whole to be reported at the meeting two weeks from tomorrow. The motion prevailed by a unanimous vote.

COUNCIL MAY TIE THE HANDS OF NEW MAYOR

Little Hope That J. Stitt Wilson Will Have Working Majority on the Board

LIKE SITUATIONS PREVAIL

Practically the same situation obtains in the second campaign for school directors. One Socialist, Herman I. Stern, remains in the running, with three other candidates, for the two positions on the board. Like Wilson, the candidate for councilman, he received the lowest vote of the four. At the election on April 22 he is counting upon the 1403 votes which he received Saturday and a share of those who voted for Walter E. Schott, Independent.

Mrs. H. C. Clifford, also a Socialist, received 1313 votes, practically all of her supporters having backed Stern as well. The Socialists are expected to cast their ballots for Stern and for Mrs. Ellen Carlisle, who received the highest vote, 2408, at Saturday's election. The Good Government forces will work for the election of Elmer E. Nichols, the attorney and former school teacher, who received the next heaviest support, 1926 votes, and Mrs. James B. Hume, the well known clubwoman, who ran third at the primary, with 1545 votes. On Saturday's showing, Nichols stands the best chance of winning out with Mrs. Carlisle, although a defection in favor of Mrs. Hume would cause the election of two women to the Board of Education.

DENIES CLASS VOTE.

J. Stitt Wilson denied today that his victory was due to the Spear-Schmidt-Richardson activity in the primary campaign, which exposed Hodghead. He declared that he had won by the votes of all classes of citizens rather than through a political alliance. Wilson's assertion as to the general vote is borne out by the fact that there are not a thousand Socialists in Berkeley. A retrospect of the campaign and balloting indicates that the largest part of his support came from disgruntled elements in different parts of the city, but principally in the west end. The belief of West Berkeleysans that they will obtain White betterment through a changed administration is believed to be the cause of the heavy Wilson vote in that end of town.

"I never talked with Mr. Schmidt or Mr. Spear for fifteen minutes during the entire campaign," said Wilson today. "There was no coalition."

"I shall begin my administration with 'ditch and dirt' but will proceed as rapidly as the law will permit to carry out the constructive principles which I have advocated."

WANTS KINDERGARTENS.

In addition to his announced purpose of acquiring as soon as possible as many public utilities as the city can take over, Wilson says he will endeavor to establish free kindergartens as part of the public school system, and organize a civic art commission to recommend and suggest plans for preserving the city's natural beauties. This plan includes the planting of trees and the laying out of streets.

Wilson announced today that he would

LAKE SHORE PARK SCENE OF EXCITING CONTEST AT OPENING THIS MORNING.

Tennis enthusiasts visited the new Lakeshore tennis courts today at the opening of the courts by the park commission. Several sets were played by local experts, and the courts pronounced to be of the highest standard in every way.

It is planned to organize a club and hold meets and championship contests. The courts are open to the use of the public and nets will be provided by the park commission, the visitors bringing their own bats and balls. Keys to the new courts may be had on application to Secretary Henry Vogt of the commission at the city hall annex, 1338 Broadway.

'JACOB, FIRST PROSPECTOR' HIS SERMON SUBJECT

Rev. G. A. Martell took for his theme last night at the Claremont Baptist Church "Jacob, the first prospector." The text was "With my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I am become two bands." He said in part:

"In this verse Jacob is seen taking an inventory of his property, which had been amassed through hard labor. The Bible never minimizes the achievements of men, though it offers some suggestions about the right use of property."

"Jacob left home as many young men do, under a cloud. By his own action, aided and abetted by his too ambitious mother, he had placed himself in a false position, and discovered that his room was more desired than his company. There was not much that was rosy in his prospect."

"But his sense of need was the occasion of his success, for it enabled him to form a partnership with God. With his face to the future, he discovered God and linked his fortune with the Eternal. His desire for the friendship of God and sensibility to spiritual influences were the strong points in his character."

DRIVING A DUMP CART PROVED PROFITABLE

Cornelius Crowley, who died a few days ago after having driven a dump cart for the city for many years, left an estate of about $2000. His will was filed this morning in the Superior Court for probate. The estate will be divided among a score of relatives, all of whom lived in the city. Crowley had no blood relatives in this country.

LEHIGH VALLEY CASE IS STILL UNSETTLED

COLLEGE THESPIANS TO SHOW ABILITY IN 'MARY STUART'

Students who will appear in the production of "Mary Stuart" to be given by the English Club of the State University.

J.W. RANKIN AS PAULET
AND MISS LEIGH
STAFFORD AS MARY
STUART

BERKELEY, April 3.—The English club of the University of California is preparing to present Mary Stuart, the great historical play by the German dramatist, Schiller, in the Hearst Greek theater, Berkeley, on the evening of April 22.

This production will be by far the most ambitious one yet attempted by the college thespians, not only because of difficult acting scenes but also because of the large number of important character parts.

Garnet Holme, who has been coaching the student theatricals for the last three years is already engaged in drilling the players for their parts, and daily rehearsals is the program which he has mapped out for his actors.

"Mary Stuart" recommends itself to the English club not alone because of its high dramatic worth and clever mechanism, but also by the many spectacular features which can be introduced with wonderful effect in the large, open-air stage of the Berkeley amphitheater.

Coch Holme is intending to arrange the mob scenes with more pageantry, so that as a spectacle this production will be the most brilliant and contain more characters than any other play yet seen in the Hearst theater.

In this play there are three leading parts, all of which require careful acting. Miss Leigh Stafford who has been highly commended for her work in former college productions will again assume the title role, a part which is admirably adapted to her style of acting.

The difficult task of interpreting Elizabeth will be entrusted to a freshman, Miss Louise Ramsdell, who has selected despite her lack of experience. Since George Manship has left college to take up the study of the stage in England, the leading masculine parts have been handled by Ernest Clure, and he will be seen as Lord Leicester in Mary Stuart.

Coach Garnet Holme has selected the following cast:

Mary Stuart.....Leigh Stafford
Elizabeth.....Miss Leigh Stafford
Hannah Kennedy.....Minnie Murthin
Margaret Cuel.....Elizabeth Baker
Attendants.....Mary Krul, Carolyn
Lord Leicester.....Ernest Clure
Sir Edward Mortimer.....R. Weber
Bursleigh.....J. H. Cotton
Talbot.....R. G. Ham
Paulet.....J. W. Rankin
French Ambassador.....H. S. O'Neill
Count.....Lawrence Nicol
Melville.....George Berliner
Burgoyne.....J. E. Oliver

Officer of the Guard.....O. N. Browning

FORMER POSTAL OFFICIAL INDICTED

Arthur M. Travers Accused of Embezzling Rare
Stamps.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Arthur M. Travers, former chief clerk to the third assistant postmaster general and for a time acting third postmaster general, was indicted here today for the alleged embezzlement and sale of rare stamps, the face value of which amounted to less than $200 but for which Travers, it is alleged, obtained $500.

Joseph Steinmetz of Philadelphia was indicted on one of the charges with Travers, it being alleged that he did the actual selling of the stamps. It is alleged that Travers and Steinmetz had sold all stamps which were embezzled they would have secured $10,000.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REWARDS SECRETARY

A. A. Denison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, left yesterday on a two-weeks' vacation, which he will spend at Byron Hot Springs in the Napa valley and Santa Cruz mountains. Denison was granted a holiday by the unanimous vote of the directors of the chamber in recognition of the good work he is doing for that body. He is run down in health from overwork in connection with the defeat of the Wolfe bill at Sacramento.

PICKPOCKET WAS BUSY AT CHILI GULCH CAMP

P. H. Radford of 2344 Sixteenth street, San Francisco, complained to the police today that while at Idem Park yesterday pickpockets posted him in a crowd and stole a purse containing $50. He did not see the men who took the purse and was unable to give a description of the thief to the police.

Joel Cook of 1580 West street reported this morning that while attending the "Chili Gulch" fair Saturday night a pickpocket stole a purse containing $5.50 from him. He did not see the man.

HAVE MONEY FOR MORE CLUB HOUSES

Several New Homes for Students Will Be Established
Next Term at Berkeley.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 3.—Additional gifts amounting to a large sum have been promised to the committee in charge of the funds from which loans are made to students for starting club houses. As a result the committee has announced that it will be able to loan enough to establish several new clubs next semester.

The usual method followed is for a group of students to get together, elect their officers and then file their application for a club with the committee. However, individuals may also make applications, and they will be brought into touch with others who may wish to enter a club, in this way giving an opportunity to form congenial groups.

Two clubs for men and two for women were formed last year. The members of these clubs find living in them much better and cheaper than in boarding houses.

Following is the committee in charge of the enterprise: Mrs. E. I. Wheeler, Mrs. M. L. Cheney, Mrs. L. J. Richardson, Dr. M. B. Ritter, Miss Hattie Whitlow, Mrs. L. D. Inskip, Professors Jessica Peixotto, Lucy Sprague Lincoln Hutchinson, C. H. Rieber, G. C. Edwards and W. C. Jones.

COMMERCE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR NEXT TERM

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 3.—Election of officers for next semester and a discussion of the coming annual banquet and tug ride was the principal business considered at the College Commerce Club's last meeting.

In the contest for officers to serve for the semester beginning next August, that of president of the organization fell to E. A. Fisher, vice president to W. H. Collin and secretary-treasurer to E. C. Nelson. The incumbent officers who will continue to serve until that time are: E. L. Sargeant, president; D. T. Baber, vice-president; and K. C. Mohrhardt, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided to hold the annual banquet on the evening of Saturday April 8, in San Francisco.

SHE FAILS TO ROUT HER DEVIL

NEW YORK.—Her failure to eliminate a devil from another woman resulted in the appearance in the Fifth Avenue court in Brooklyn, of Marie Catenaccio, a fortune teller, of No. 134 Ninth street. She was held in $1500 bail for examination.

Rosina Bastilla of No. 188 Hamilton avenue was taken ill several days ago. Medicines did her no good and friends suggested that she visit the Catenaccio woman.

"Your trouble is a very extraordinary one," the fortune teller is alleged to have exclaimed after examining Rosina's palm. "You possess a devil."

Asked what it would cost to have the evil one chased away, it is said Miss Catenaccio answered:

"While I only charge $1 or $2 for telling fortunes, I usually get $100 for extracting devils. It entails considerable effort and sorely tests my supernatural powers."

Rosina had only $50, so she borrowed the rest. This, she says, she gave to the fortune teller, who finally told her to go home, that the devil had vanished. But she got no better and went to court.

GREAT INTEREST TAKEN IN STAG WHIST TOURNAY

W. F. STEINMETZ (upper) and A. W. BRAMPTON (lower), two members of the committee arranging for the Alameda Boat Club stag whist party.

ENGINEER INJURED IN FALL FROM VESSEL

ALAMEDA, April 3.—Interest is being taken in the stag whist to be given by the Alameda Boat club at Harmonie hall tomorrow night. The committee in charge consists of E. B. Thorning, chairman; Henry G. Nielsen, A. W. Brampton, W. F. Steinmetz, A. G. Bell, W. MacCauley, Elmer Kehres and Oscar Sommer.

The whist tourney is being given to raise funds for a gymnasium outfit. The club will celebrate its opening day Sunday, April 23, with a cruise to Paradise Cove in the launches Dolphin No. 2 and 1 which have been chartered by the club for this occasion. A baseball game between the married and single members of the club will be a feature of the day's outing at Paradise Cove.

ALAMEDA, April 3.—Falling overboard from the steamer Badgers at anchor at the United Engineering Works last night, S. Moore, the assistant engineer of the steamer, was painfully injured. He was rescued by sailors on the ship and removed to the Emergency hospital in this city.

He sustained deep cuts about the face and head. Dr. L. W. Sildham treated him.

DOG STOOD GUARD OVER POLICEMAN

BERKELEY, April 3.—Two special policemen of Berkeley are in a serious condition at Roosevelt hospital, both having been taken there early yesterday morning from different parts of the city.

J. G. Patterson, one of the officers, is not expected to live, being still unconscious from the effects of a fall from his bicycle, after suffering a stroke of apoplexy.

S. P. Scott, the other special policeman, was taken from his room in the Virginia apartments, suffering from a severe hemorrhage of the lungs. He will probably recover.

Special Officer Patterson, who is a married man and resides at 1834 Alcatraz avenue, was found unconscious in Forest avenue, near College, by Bert Campbell, another special policeman in the Claremont district, about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. He had fallen from his wheel and sustained an injury of the skull which may prove to be a fracture.

Patterson's dog was standing guard over his master. The policeman's face was battered and bleeding. It is the opinion of Dr. Clarence W. Page, who attended him at the hospital, that Patterson suffered an attack of apoplexy while riding along on his bicycle, and fell to the ground. In the street there were evidences that he had struggled after falling.

Dr. Page said today that Patterson's chances for recovery were not so good as he had not yet regained consciousness.

FRIVOLITY CLUB HAS PLANNED UNIQUE DANCE

BERKELEY, April 3.—A unique and interesting dance, which will furnish fun for all who attend, will be given Wednesday evening, April 5, in Lincoln hall, South Berkeley, by the Frivolity Social club, a merry making organization of the section.

The committee is working with keen interest to make the affair, one not to be forgotten. Everything will be just opposite to what is expected, and the club promises many surprises and amusing features during the evening.

The committee will be furnished by Donaldson's orchestra. Refreshments will be free and plentiful and the souvenirs appropriate and pleasing.

The constant demand for invitations assures a large crowd. The club extends a cordial invitation to its friends and patrons to join with them in the pleasures of the evening.

The Calvary church was finished three weeks ago at a cost of $6000. The Rev. Andrew Leattle is the pastor.

Scott's Express to Occupy New Quarters.

Mr. Fred French announces that Scott's Express, of which he is president, will remove to the roomy and up-to-date structure which the company has recently erected at the southeast corner of Fourth and Webster streets.

Scott's Express is one of the oldest and best known drayage and express concerns on this side of the bay, and under the able management of Mr. French, has successfully met all competition of rates and service, annually winning its present enviable position.

The present quarters of the company are at 367 Sixth street, but the premises are too small to accommodate its growing business. The phones now used by this city two weeks planning to remove to Siskiyou court left Saturday for his new home, and will be joined by Mrs. Bateman next week.

A telegram received by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Binder announced the arrival of twin daughters to Mr. and Mrs. John Parks Hemphill at their home in Madera, Friday. Mrs. Hemphill was Miss Hazel Binder.

Be Good to Your Stomach

Be good to your stomach—it will return your kindness a thousand-fold in health, happiness and strength for the day's work. Nothing so delicious, wholesome and nourishing in Summer as strawberries with a food that makes muscle, bone and brain without taxing the digestion. Shredded Wheat Biscuit with cream and a little fresh fruit for breakfast will keep the stomach sweet and clean and the bowels healthy and active—better than medicine or any "Spring tonic."

Heat the Biscuit in an oven to restore crispness; then cover with strawberries, raspberries or other berries and serve with milk or cream, adding sugar to suit the taste. If you haven't tried it you don't know all the joys of Summer—more healthful, wholesome and nourishing than soggy white-flour short-cake—always clean, always pure, always the same price. Try it today. Your grocer sells it.

THE ONLY CEREAL BREAKFAST FOOD MADE IN BISCUIT FORM

The Election in Berkeley.

The Berkeley election was a rebuke to moral snobbery. It was sheer disgust at political prudery and hypocrisy that prompted the voters to elect Stitt Wilson. They do not believe in Socialism and they place little faith in the utopian promises made by the Socialist candidate. They wanted to express their disesteem for the mutual admiration society which assumed an attitude of moral superiority and on all occasions presented its members as being better than their neighbors. The election of Wilson was a revolt against self-righteousness. The Sadducees and Essenes joined forces and routed the Pharisees from control of the city government.

That is all there is to it. Not one-fourth of the men who voted for Wilson are Socialists or care a snap about Socialism. A great many of them care nothing whatever about Wilson. It was not the quality of the service given by the administration that prompted them to repudiate it, but the character and methods of the group of persons who have undertaken to keep the public conscience.

Another factor contributed to Hodghead's defeat. Colonel Roosevelt came to Berkeley to lecture at the university and he injected himself into the municipal campaign. It was none of his business of course, but the Hodghead supporters are among his acolytes and were headed by Benjamin Ide Wheeler, and he eagerly seized the opportunity to tell the citizens of Berkeley how they should vote. A considerable number of them "coppered" the advice, to use a gaming-table phrase, and voted for Wilson as a reproof to the ex-President. It will not tickle the Colonel's vanity to learn that his speech in behalf of Mayor Hodghead was followed by the election of his Socialist opponent.

There was really no substantial grievance against Hodghead. His administration has been clean and economical and reasonably efficient. There was little ground for valid complaint against it. Why then, was its head, the idol and representative of the so-called "better element," turned down and a Socialist elected as his successor? Because he was the candidate of the better element; because the better element has been too much on dress parade, too exclusive, too censorious and too meddlesome in the personal concerns of their neighbors; too prone to indulge in self-praise invidious in character. The administration of Berkeley was made a close corporation affair. The circle that controlled and directed it was limited, select, exclusive, and altogether above the common herd. Their attitude of moral superiority incensed the base rabble, and their efforts to make the government exclusive and highly decorous was resented at the polls. They forgot that the government belongs to the people and not to a self-constituted mutual admiration society, that the so-called better element has no divine right to rule, and that the ignorant multitude will have a voice in selecting their rulers.

There was too much starch and not enough substance in the Hodghead administration, too many lofty professions and too little sympathy with the masses. It was not a government by the people, but a government for the people. It was too good to live and it was made sick by self-praise. The Colonel's endorsement finally killed it. Such results are to be expected when the head of the university tries to be a boss and Socialism is taught in the classrooms. Why should not the University city have a Socialist Mayor when Socialism is a strident note in the university teaching?

It is announced that the Democrats will make heavy cuts in the fruit schedule of the tariff. This will hit the citrus fruit, raisin and other industries of California. This State will then be able to appreciate the blessings of tariff reform when the orchardists are reduced to the bankrupt condition they were in during the second Cleveland administration.

Progress in the Sacramento Valley.

A great stream of home-seekers is setting out for the Pacific. One of the largest currents of this stream is flowing into California. The tide is spreading all over the State. For the first time since the early days the Sacramento valley is getting its share of the immigration. That region held back for a generation by land monopoly is undergoing a great development. Many of the great wheat ranches are being subdivided and sold to settlers, and large irrigation systems are constructed to water the land. Dairying is becoming an important industry, and crop diversification is succeeding the old system of raising grain exclusively. The settling up and development of the Sacramento valley will contribute immensely to the prosperity of Sacramento, Oakland and San Francisco. Sacramento has already felt the stimulus of the growth in the northern counties, a growth that has been greatly stimulated by the electric railway system radiating through the valley. The building of the Western Pacific has also been a contributing factor. Why do we speak of this? Because it vitally interests Oakland. The Sacramento valley pours its products through Oakland. All the railway lines traversing that region terminate here, and very soon the electric railway system radiating from Sacramento will be connected with the electric railway system radiating from Oakland. Every new settler planted in the Sacramento valley will help build up Oakland—provided this city takes advantage of the opportunity presented. Oakland's business men ought to reach out for the trade of the Sacramento valley now, not wait till the new population coming into that region has found other trade channels. We ought to take better advantage of our water transportation facilities. At any rate our merchants ought to keep in touch with the development of the great region to the north. In a few years a mighty change will come over the old wheat growing counties. It will be caused by small farms, intensive farming, irrigation, good roads and better transportation facilities. Oakland ought to get her share of the benefits that will accrue.

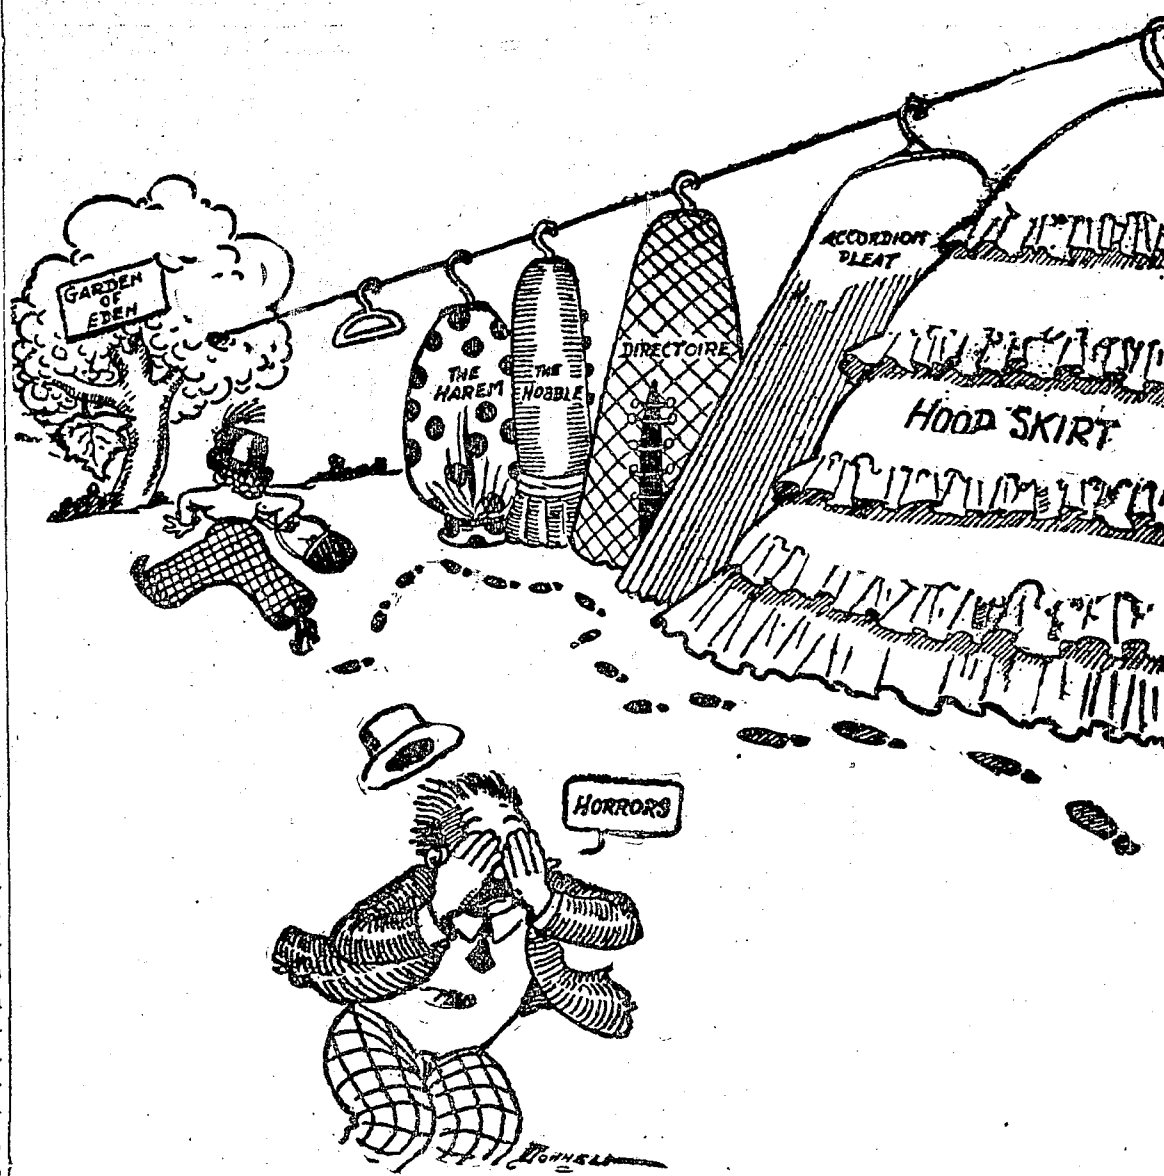

William J. Baccus is not exactly sawing wood, but he is laying brick at a great rate. It is seldom that a candidate for office will go on laying brick as if bricklaying was the better part of politics. Mr. Baccus is a candidate for City Commissioner No. 2, but he also has the contract for the masonry work on the Syndicate building. He is trying to get the work done in record time, and is working with a trowel among his men just as he did in the old days when he was a journeyman. No wonder the bricklayers' and the hodcarriers' unions have endorsed him.

Needs of the Annexed District.

At a meeting at Elmhurst the other evening one of the speakers complained that the promises made to the annexed district when the annexation election was pending had not been kept. His complaint was just. A number of the promises have not been kept. Some of them should not have been made because there were legal obstacles in the way of their fulfillment.

However, the citizens of the annexed district have the power to enforce the fulfillment of every promise. They can protect their interests by electing men resident in the district to represent them in the City Commission and the Board of Education. They have capable and upright candidates in P. C. Frederickson for the City Commission and W. H. Chapman for the Board of Education. Both will be elected if they are supported with any degree of unanimity by the annexed district. If the citizens of the annexed district fail to support them, they will have only themselves to blame if their interests are neglected in future.

Mr. Frederickson will be strongly supported in all sections of the city because he is a man of wide acquaintance and excellent character. Also he will get many votes in the older sections of the city because of a feeling that the annexed district is entitled to one member of the City Commission. He is a successful business man and can be depended upon to stand up for the interests of his section. Moreover, he is just the sort of man that should be elected to the commission. It is extraordinary that any property owner in the annexed district should think of opposing him.

The Lord helps those who help themselves. In politics local interests are protected when the voters elect men who will protect them. The annexed district has many needs which will not be supplied if the district does not have a representative in the City Commission. It can have a representative, a high-class dependable man, if the citizens of the district give Mr. Frederickson the support to which he is entitled.

The district will also be capably represented in the school board should Mr. Chapman be elected. Mr. Chapman will be elected if the citizens of the annexed district vote solidly for him.

In a matter of so much importance to them it will be strange if the people of the annexed district sacrifice their interests to gratify prejudices or mere personal preferences. They have more at stake in this election than any other section of the city, for their section is in a crucial stage of civic development and must be treated liberally by the incoming administration if it is to thrive and prosper and develop as it should.

When a man knows that he does not know it all he is wise; when he knows that he knows he makes others think that he is wise.

The fellow who will not move onward is sure to fall to the rear; that man will come to grief who does not "git up and git."

Your character is your open life-book that many try to read, but few successfully—they see only its sin-blotched pages.

When you are opposed by others it is because they believe you stronger than they—your enemies are your inferiors.

A meek man can see better and greater things through the tear drop than through the lens of a microscope.

STORY OF HEAVY DAYS

During my search for the manuscript of "Pickwick," I heard from one source that the original was in America. The Americans are zealous collectors of Charles Dickens' letters and writings, and one day when I was examining volume after volume of the manuscripts, their keeper told me that many Americans go to him every year and beg permission "just to touch" one of the bound volumes of manuscript. Later inquiry about the manuscript of "Pickwick" brought the following information from Miss Hogarth: The manuscript of "Pickwick" was never preserved in its entirety at all! Stray fragments of it have turned up—and are dispersed about the world, I believe. But it was not given by its author to anyone. I don't think he attached much importance to his manuscript in those early days. So we must go without this manuscript.

It is impossible for us of the present generation to realize what a god-send to the people of nearly a century ago were the light green monthly parts of "Pickwick." It came out in heavy days, when people had solid mahogany sideboards, and when the vogue of the black, horsehair covered, shiny sofa was supreme; they had armchairs, but no easy ones, and this remark applies to the literature of the period as well as to its furniture. Thomas Carlyle wrote in a letter to a friend: "An archdeacon, with his own venerable lips, repeated to me the other night a strange, profane story of a clergyman who had been administering ghostly consolation to a sick person, having finished, satisfactorily as he thought, and got out of the room, he heard the sick person ejaculate: 'Well, thank God! 'Pickwick' will be out in ten days, anyway.'"—Strand.

ORGANIZED CHARITY IN 1809. The Methodists of New York City over a hundred years ago started their first organized charity. The record of this early venture is preserved in a volume in the library of the Methodist Historical Society. On November 12, 1809, at a meeting held in the school at Worth and Hudson streets, the Assistance Society for Relieving and Advancing Sick and Poor Persons in the city of New York was organized. The city was divided into districts. At first there were four, then five and six, till finally the number became seven. These were called walks.

PA'S THOUGHTFULNESS. I don't know what makes pa so glum. A day or two ago he came Home from the job he has in town. An' sighin' as he settles down In his armchair he said: "My dear," Mennin' my ma, "I've somethin' here That ought to make you awful glad; An' children, when fate avants your dad And he is carted to the dump Where tumble bugs and bees galump You needn't wonder where you're at— Your daddy has looked out for that."

"I have insured my worthless life," Pa said. "I want to tell you wife, That I ain't done no other thing. That made me feel so good, by jing! I'm glad I done it! You will be. When you have seen the last of me, Beyond all want and every fear, Of goin' broke from year to year: You'll never have to rub-a-dub Nobody's clothes, nor kneel and scrub Nobody's floors. I've fixed things right; I'm feeling mighty good tonight."

"That's nice of you," said ma to pa, "You're the best man I ever saw! I hope you'll live a thousand years! I wish you might, but this thing clears A lot of doubts from off my mind For us folks who'd be left behind, If you keep livin' like you are We'll never git a tourin' car, No sealskin coat, and little Jim— There'll be no college course for him. I almost wish—" She heaved a sigh. Then pa got mad. I wonder why? —Chicago News.

Things in General

Virginia has at last placed a memorial to Patrick Henry, orator, patriot and the commonwealth's first governor, in historic St. John's church, Richmond. It is a bronze tablet, paid for with an appropriation granted by the legislature. The tablet sets forth that Patrick Henry, "in the Virginia convention, assented to the Declaration of Independence, signed the same March 20, 1776, by his immortal eloquence inspired in his countrymen the clear vision of truth and duty and roused them to consecrate themselves to the defense of liberty."

Dr. Casper, a German physician, has been studying the death rates in various occupations, and his researches show that the clergy appear to have the best chance of life, for of those who attain the age allotted to man—namely, three-score years and ten—clergymen show 42 per cent. The other occupations Dr. Casper gives on the following order: Agriculturists, 40 per cent; the trading class and workmen, 35 per cent; soldiers, 32 per cent; lawyers, 29 per cent; actors and other professionals, 28 per cent; teachers, 27 per cent, and doctors, 24 per cent. A Paris paper, impressed with the high rate of mortality among medical men, observes: "Those who know or are supposed to know the art of healing do not apparently understand how to take care of themselves as well as they do of others."

Bachelor Musings

No woman can be happy who has too much time to think of the things that are none of her business. Occasionally or oftener people lead a man to believe that they admire him when in reality they are only trying to work him. Shortly after her marriage a woman packs her ideals away in moth balls and pays no more attention to them until she becomes a widow. Silent tongue, slight trouble. Very often you can sell things that you couldn't give away. The softer the whisper that tells a secret, the louder its echo. Some people have such good constitutions even medicine can't keep them sick. —New York Post.

The Socialist Success in Berkeley

By JOHN P. IRISH

EDITOR TRIBUNE—The election of Mr. Wilson, Socialist, as Mayor of Berkeley should not astonish anyone, nor should the fact that he was supported by 1000 of the students and professors of the university.

Mr. Wilson states clearly the cause of his success when he says he was elected to enforce the Socialist provisions of the Berkeley charter. Berkeley and Oakland have adopted distinctively Socialist charters. Our Oakland charter was not read by five voters in five thousand, but they endorsed it, while the Socialists smiled to see their work done for them.

The recent session of the Legislature carried over the work in constitutional amendments, most of which are definitely Socialist, and not five in ten thousand of the people will read them, yet they will probably be adopted.

In Berkeley and Oakland the so-called reform charters furnish the exact form of government favored by political Socialism, and the same will be true of the State when its constitution is distorted by the pending amendments.

Thereafter it will be logical and proper to turn over to the Socialists the State government that has been formed for them. Nowhere else in this world has political Socialism advanced as rapidly as in California since we began destroying representative government.

Perhaps it may penetrate the alleged intellect of the reformers that direct government is Socialism in its dearest pose. It is the opportunity of political Socialism, which comes crying, "Government is everybody's," while behind stalks economic Socialism shouting "Everything belongs to everybody."

Mayor Wilson of Berkeley is a clear-sighted man. Civic theorists prepared the way for him, and he walks in it, victor.

If by adopting the constitutional amendments the State is Socialized, there can be no decent nor logical opposition to his ambition to be Governor.

JOHN P. IRISH.

THE GENTLER SEX

Some time ago the Baltimore & Ohio was called upon to deny a statement that it had dismissed all women from its service, having found that they could not make good. There may not be very many women engaged in railroad work, but in the West some are coming to the front, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy has named one of the sex, Miss Daisy Oden, as division passenger agent, which is certainly a job worth having. There does not seem to be the slightest doubt that Miss Daisy can hold down the position well as she has been chief clerk in one of the company's big offices for many a year and knows the business like a book.

For years a woman was the ticket agent at an important station on the New York Central in the western part of the Empire State. She, as all members of her sex should be, was very particular about her dress and personal appearance. By her side at the ticket window always stood a small vase of flowers and she kept her office looking as homelike and comfortable as could be. Bachelors would come to the window, look things over, buy a ticket and then make a flat proposal of marriage to the charming agent. She would smile sweetly, say "No," and ask the would-be suitor to move along. This she kept up for at least a quarter of a century, and pass away unweary, but very comfortable after all those years of faithful service to the New York Central. She must have refused marriage offers by the hundred in her time.

If a woman can make a record like that there is not the slightest doubt she can succeed in railroad work just as well as in any other sphere she chooses to select. If love and the altar cannot lead her thoughts away from business the new division passenger agent of the C. B. & Q. should be able to hold her own with any division passenger agent in the country. —Baltimore American.

WHY THE TURKEY IS BALD

The Indians of our country have many legends connected with certain peculiar habits or customs prevalent among them. If one should chance to visit the home of an old Indian he would perhaps notice a turkey wing hanging near the fire. This the Indian uses to fan his fire into a flame and make it burn brightly, or perhaps in the sultry days of summer to fan himself. If asked why he uses the turkey wing instead of the wing of any other bird he would no doubt relate the following story:

Many years ago the fire of the world was nearly extinguished; this happened just at the beginning of the winter season. The birds of the air were filled with anxiety, for their intuition told them they would need heat to keep them warm through the winter. A bird council was held and it was decided that birds which could fly the highest should soar into the air and see if they could find a spark of fire anywhere. The efforts of the eagle, lark and raven were in vain. The honor was left to the little brown sparrow, who sped a spark of fire in the hollow of an old stump in the heart of a deep forest. The birds flocked around the stump and tried to decide who should pick the spark out. But all their efforts were in vain; to their dismay they saw the spark growing smaller and fainter. The turkey volunteered to try to keep the tiny coal alive by fanning it with his wings. Day after day the turkey kept fanning; the heat became greater each day, until the feathers were singed off the turkey's head. If one notices carefully he will see lumps on the head of a turkey that appear as blisters. It is believed that the turkey was so badly burned that all he would have had bald heads and wear the blisters as a memento of the bravery of the turkey. The faithful turkey lost his beautiful feathers, but he gave back fire to the world; so in his honor and as a memorial of his faithfulness the Indian uses the turkey wing to make his fire burn—Red Man.

He Failed to Tell All

In his address before the Sunset Club Jacob S. Coxey, discussing his march to Washington seventeen years ago at the head of the legion of unemployed, failed to tell of the aid which came to him when Congress refused to take him seriously. George Francis Train sent a letter to the Tribune saying that he would make up for "the Senate's 26 to 17 refusal to receive Coxey's people"; that he had rented Mozart Music Hall in Washington, where he would receive all the armies marching on Washington. "I shall give what the Senate has denied, and I guarantee that all receive a full and fair hearing," he added.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs has started from New York to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Fair, in San Francisco and Monterey. The fact that Mrs. Oelrichs is not accompanied by her husband has caused some comment among her acquaintances in New York.

Among the Oaklanders who are at present traveling are the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. Moller and daughter, A. Jonas, D. F. Fryer, Mrs. Helen E. Leighton, Miss Lena Mauvais, E. A. Hersey, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Coward, J. M. Merrill, Miss Agnes Madden, Dr. A. M. Taylor, Father Cranwell, Walter Mathews, Tom Bennett, C. B. Gould, J. L. Among the names mentioned for the nomination of trustees were: August Gever, E. P. Peckham, Stanley Stephen, William Hammond, C. C. Volberg, John G. Wall and Ed. Houston of the West End. The meeting seemed to be a unit in favor of James B. Barber for city treasurer.

PANAMA CANAL TO CHANGE NATURAL HISTORY

Smithsonian Institute Encouraged by Reports From Central America.

FLORA AND FAUNA DIFFER IN OCEANS

Scientists Look for New Distribution When Ditch Is Opened.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Encouraging reports are being received by the Smithsonian Institute from the various naturalists who are taking part in the biological survey of the Panama canal, which was organized by the association last winter. The more important branches of natural history are represented in the party, which comprises seven experienced field naturalists, nearly all of them from the various scientific bureaus of the government.

Naturalists throughout the world are greatly interested in this biological survey, because when the canal is opened sweeping changes probably will take place in the distribution of the animals and plants. A part of the fresh water streams of the isthmus now empty into the Atlantic ocean and others into the Pacific.

DIFFER IN OCEANS.

It is known that a certain number of animals and plants in the streams on the Atlantic side differ from those of the Pacific side, but as no biological survey has ever been undertaken the extent and magnitude of these differences have yet to be learned. It also is of great importance to science to determine exactly the geographical distribution of the various organisms inhabiting these waters as the isthmus is one of the routes by which the animals and plants of South America have entered North America and vice versa.

When the canal is completed the natural distinctions now existing will be obliterated, while by the construction of the Gatun dam a vast fresh water lake will be created, which will drive away or drown the majority of the animals and plants now inhabiting the locality and might possibly exterminate some species before they become known to science.

PLEASANTON MAN BADLY MANGLED

William Snyder Struck by San Jose Train and Legs Amputated.

PLEASANTON, April 3.—William Snyder, an employee of the Pleasanton horse-training park, and one of the oldest residents in the community, was found lying across the Southern Pacific tracks with both legs badly mangled yesterday morning by the engineer of the San Jose local.

The injured man had lain on the tracks for nearly an hour before he was discovered and sent to the Emergency hospital at Pleasanton and from there to the County Infirmary, where Dr. W. A. Clark found it necessary to amputate both legs at the knee. As a result of the intense pain and the exposure, Snyder is now in a semi-conscious condition, but unless his legs are set in he has an even break for life.

NEW YORK, April 3.—At 8 o'clock this morning Dr. MacKenzie, a surgeon, started from Coney Island for San Francisco on a walking tour. Beside him will travel his wife in a prairie schooner drawn by two horses.

The prairie schooner will hold a piano, and while they start without funds, they will sell postal cards and music along the way.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies have done for me. For two years I suffered. The doctors said I had tumors, and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. Your Liver Pills have no equal as a cathartic. Any one wishing proof of what your medicines have done for me can get it from any druggist or by writing to me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Another Operation Avoided.
New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."—Mrs. MARY PETERSON, 1111 Ketterer St., New Orleans, La.

The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly proving in the most conclusive manner that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ailments from which so many women suffer,

KOLB AND TRAINED SAUSAGE CREATE RIOT AT ORPHEUM

C. WILLIAM KOLB, whose work in "The Delicatessen Shop" at the Orpheum has added to his fame.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

C. William Kolb and his assistants show how a delicatessen shop should not be run, to the infinite delight of the Orpheum audiences. The elongated comedian had no trouble at all in creating a riot at the showhouse yesterday. Stuart Barnes is another advocate of "a laugh in time saves a doctor bill." Miss Hamid Alexander talks her songs at the piano and Miss Eleanor Haber shows herself as others see you.

(By LEO LEVY.)

C. William Kolb, with his trained sausages and his new cashier created a near riot at the Orpheum yesterday. The audience wouldn't let the assassin of the American tongue get away until he explained in a certain talk that he couldn't make a speech and hinted that it might be best for all concerned that he didn't. Kolb is just as big a favorite as he was before they cut the Siamese tie that bound him to Max Dill. The applause they gave him was deafening and the whistling created a draft. The edge may have been taken off Kolb's composure when he divorced Dill, but don't let anyone convince you that united they stood, divided they fall. Kolb is funny, provided your digestion is good. If it isn't, he isn't for is anybody or anything else. If there breathed a person in the audience yesterday with risibilities so dead as to stifle the smile that struggled for expression, it is a doctor he needs, not the Orpheum.

REALISM RUN RIOT.

"The Delicatessen Shop" is realism run riot. There never was a ready-made lunch place quite as inviting as that Kolb owns back of the Orpheum's footlights. Besides a cashier, a clerk and several customers Kolb pays the salaries of a chicken that ceased clucking some time ago, a cheese that is extraordinarily active for one of its age, a pneumatic tube system and a sausage that wags its tail when whistled for. All of which goes to create merriment, although not classed as high art.

That Kolb lost some of his ability to thrust and parry when he lost Dill as a foil cannot be denied. But it isn't an argument that the comedian can't tickle your funny-bone as of old. He still retains the power to clutch the Queen's English by the throat, choke it into insensibility, beat it lifeless, rend it limb from limb, mangle it beyond recognition and cast it at your feet, a lifeless, quivering, shapeless thing that never was pictured in Webster's.

BARNES IS SCREAM.

The stage manager evidently followed Kolb with Stuart Barnes to prove the oft-repeated assertion that a vaudeville audience never gets tired of laughing. Barnes is a monologist who goes about it in a new way. His ideas of domestic problems and the suffrage question, while not arguments for the lecture platform or an essay are quite convincing to Orpheumites. Barnes' way of putting it, his droll songs and his bit of character work, brand him one of the score or so who "command the highest salary ever paid a vaudeville star."

Miss Hamid Alexander talks and acts her songs while she accompanies herself with the piano. She quickly wins her audience with the flavor of old London, of which her work smacks. Eleanor Haber's types of women are cleverly drawn and not overdone. The Pray for the Devil to Die and an exhibition of skill round out a bill of newcomers that is vaudeville of the better kind and the best of last week's acts remain—The Kolbians, the Six Flying Bananas and Jarro.

WILL INSTRUCT IN PATRIOTISM

Veterans Plan for Lessons and Speeches to Be Given the Youth of Nation.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Chicago veterans of the Civil War have formed an organization for instruction in patriotism. The organization has been incorporated as the Grand Army National Bureau of Patriotic Instruction.

"The new society plans to teach the youth patriotism by giving them ready access to famous patriotic speeches and songs and by acquainting them with some of the patriotic deeds which abound in the history of this country," said James P. Scanlan, one of the incorporators yesterday. "We aim to transmit some of the patriotic traditions of this country in their most vital form to the younger generation."

He added that the Chicago veterans hoped the next national encampment would back the project up and make it national in scope.

SEAMAN TO SEARCH FOR ANCIENT TREASURE

TACOMA, Wash., April 3.—At Eagle harbor the old bark "Hesper" is being outfitted for Captain Fred Hackett's third expedition to Cocos island to search for a pirate treasure supposed to be buried there. His story is that seventy-six years ago, during the war between Peru and Chile, the Peruvians loaded their treasury funds, amounting to $15,000,000 in coin, aboard a vessel commanded by Captain L. Thompson. This mariner quickly put out to sea, but, observing signs of mutiny, he put ashore at Cocos island and buried his treasure there.

Captain Hackett possesses what he believes to be the original chart, showing the location of the buried coin boxes. He says that landlarks prevented his reaching the treasure on his last voyage. He is now equipping the Hesper with a powerful apparatus, almost big enough to sluice away the whole island, which is said to be only five miles in diameter. He hopes to sail in May, and believes that this time nothing can prevent his success.

BREAKS TRANSPACIFIC RECORD.
VICTORIA, B. C., April 3.—Breaking all records, the steamer Makura arrived yesterday three days in advance of her schedule. She beat the record made by the turbine steamer Moana in 1906 by one day.

There were 330 passengers, including many prominent travelers bound to the coronation.

AUTO LEAPS GAP; FOUR ARE INJURED

Three Men and Woman Badly Hurt When Machine Is Wrecked.

KANSAS CITY, April 3.—Three men and one woman were injured here yesterday when an automobile in which they were riding, literally "leaped the gap," plunging into the air over a double car track under which was a deep ditch, and landing thirty feet beyond.

A pile of crushed rock, sloping at an angle of 45 degrees, acted as a springboard for the car, the driver not knowing of the danger beyond. The motor ascended the slope and leaped clear of the tracks, which were being repaired and covered a deep excavation.

Three wheels of the automobile were broken and the occupants thrown to the ground. All were injured slightly.

FRATERNITY HOUSES LOOTED BY THIEVES

ITHACA, N. Y., April 3.—A series of fraternity house thefts have been reported to the police by Cornell students. One fraternity has missed twelve suits of clothes valued at $400, while another reports the loss of a $150 typewriter and many articles of jewelry. As yet, no clew has been found to the identity of the thieves nor the methods used in removing the goods from the house.

MODERATION IN ALL THINGS KEY TO LONGEVITY

President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard Tells How He Has Conserved Health.

WELCOMES FRESH AIR AND DODGES LUXURY

Avoids Regular Use of Stimulants and Lives Much in the Open.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Charles W. Eliot, former president of Harvard University, in reply to an inquiry from Alfred B. Conkling of this city, has written a letter explaining the methods by which he has so remarkably conserved his health and vigor.

Mr. Eliot says: "In reply to your inquiry of March 22, I beg to say that my health and capacity for work at 77 years of age are unusually good. I attribute this result to a good constitution, moderation in eating and drinking, a habit of taking some exercise and some fresh air every day, and of avoiding all use of luxury and the constant use of any drug, such as alcohol, coffee, tea and tobacco."

Since I was 12 years of age my sports have been walking, riding horseback, driving, rowing and sailing, to which, after I was 55 years of age, I added riding a bicycle. I am still good for all those sports in moderation and still enjoy them.

"The use of dumb bells and clubs has been for me only an inferior sort of exercise in the open air. Under such circumstances I still use light dumb bells."

"When I am asked about the habits which are most conducive to a long life I generally answer, moderation in eating, a full allowance of sleep and no regular use of any stimulant whatever."

SEEK MURDERER OF POLICEMAN

Kansas City Detectives Have 22 Italians in Custody on Suspicion.

KANSAS CITY, April 3.—Twenty-two of the fifty-eight arrested Sunday night's raids upon the Italian quarter were still held by the police today. The other thirty-six satisfied the officials, after a grilling questioning during the night, that they knew nothing of the murder last Tuesday of Joseph Raimo, an Italian policeman. Raimo is believed to have been the victim of an organized Italian "gang," with headquarters in Kansas City.

Chief of Police W. E. Griffin said today he would hold the men still in custody "for investigation."

The weapons seized in yesterday's raid, consisting of shotguns, revolvers, rifles and knives, have been confiscated.

EXPLORERS LOST IN ARCTIC WILDS

Stefansson and Anderson Iced-Bound in the Far North.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Somewhere up in the Arctic region, thousands of miles from civilization, are the two chief members of the Stefansson-Anderson expedition, which left New York about three years ago on a tour of exploration and scientific research in the frozen north. Nothing has been heard from Stefansson for nearly a year, and officials at the American Museum of Natural History, which sent out the expedition in cooperation with the geographical survey of the United States government, are beginning to feel some anxiety.

The museum has decided to discontinue the work of exploration in the Arctic regions and word has been already given to this effect to Stefansson and Anderson.

HONOR BIRTHDAY OF CHINA'S INFANT RULER

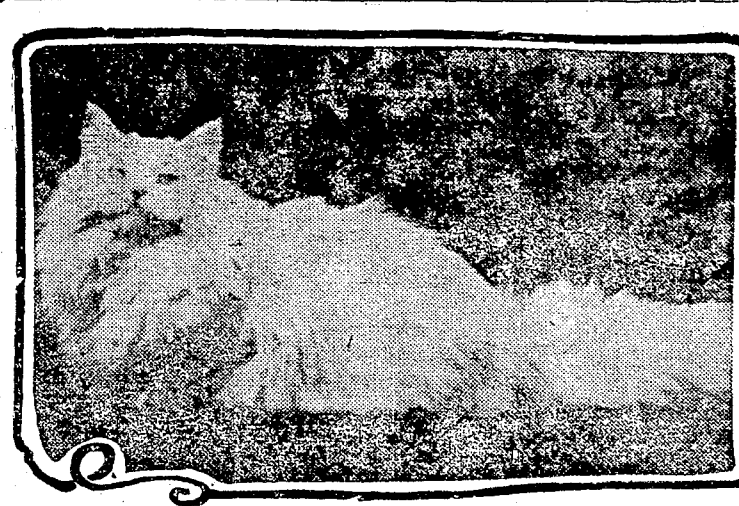

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—An unusual banquet in honor of the third birthday of the infant emperor of China, was given at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel here today. Consul Kwang of that city, according to mail advices received here, among those present were the premier, Sir Joseph Edward, and his frequently opposed Chinese immigration; two members of his cabinet, a judge of the Supreme Court, prominent citizens and many foreign consuls. Most of the speeches were suggestive of a festive cordiality. The premier did not reply directly to the consul's appeal for a better understanding between the races of the east and west but proposed a personal compliment to Kwang.

INSURE CHICKEN DIET FOR IDITAROD MINERS

TACOMA, Wash., April 3.—With 2000 live chickens destined for Iditarod, B. W. Johnson has started over the trail from Valdez. This is the first attempt in the history of the Valdez Fairbanks road to take live birds over the 400-mile stretch of snow to Tanana. The chickens were loaded in double-decked coops on sixteen sleds. Each sled had an air-tight floor, was arranged in each coop and special tarpaulins made to cover the load and protect the chickens against the cold and at the same time allow ventilation. Men were sent ahead with feed for the birds and to build houses at intervals, where the chickens will be allowed to rest and move around. Johnson expects to get $4 or $5 apiece for the chickens at Iditarod. He is taking several passengers with him, among whom are three women.

Valuable Blue-Eyed Angora Is Exhibited in Oakland

GAY HUSSAR, blue-eyed white angora, owned by Mrs. William O'Brien of Watsonville.

Cat fanciers will doubtless be greatly interested in hearing of the presence in Oakland of one of the most valuable blue-eyed white Angoras in the country. This cat, Gay Hussar by name, is now being cared for by Mrs. Frank Baker, proprietor of the City Hall Cat Kennels, 1122 Grove street, while his mistress is ill. He is the property of Mrs. William O'Brien, of Watsonville, and is a son of two of the most famous prize winners.

In his class, Sir Frier and White Angorlette, cats known throughout the United States. Mrs. O'Brien purchased Gay Hussar in the east when he was only a kitten, and has recently refused $400 for him, in fact, as a family pet no money could buy him. He is a very fine animal, so Mrs. Baker, who is secretary of the California Cat Club, declares, possessing an exceptionally fine white coat and eyes of a very rare blue. He is now nearly two years old.

More than 200 of the students are supported by the government, each receiving about $900 a year. Nearly half of the students have been prepared for college by missionary institutions. The average age of the young women students is 25, that of the young men, 24.

AUTO SPEED FIENDS DODGE SAN MATEO

SAN MATEO, April 3.—In two weeks the record for automobile arrests in San Mateo county has been broken. Sunday last a new record was established with over a score of speeders fined within the county limits. Yesterday not one speed demon was gathered in by the motorcycle policemen.

The watchful Mike Brown, deputy sheriff, stopped a machine in the city limits after a hot pursuit, but broke to his chagrin that the occupant was Dr. Max Rothchild of Burlingame. Rothchild was hurrying to the bedside of his wife, who had been taken seriously ill, and was released by Brown.

MAN STRUCK BY THUG IS DEAD

Los Angeles Police Have Murder Mystery With Peculiar Angle to Solve.

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—R. N. Messer, aged 31, a cigar store clerk, died yesterday from a fractured skull, the result of an attack by a thug in Westlake Park Wednesday night. According to Messer's statement, which is corroborated by his fiancée, Mrs. Christina Sandigo, a widow, the two were walking through the park about 9 o'clock when Messer was ordered to throw up his hands by a masked man.

While the robber was going through Messer's pockets he dealt Messer a blow on the head with his revolver. Mrs. Sandigo was then robbed of $9, and the man attempted to assault her. Messer revived slightly and the highwayman, becoming frightened, fled. Mrs. Sandigo did not report the affair to the police, and it was not until Thursday after that the officials found Messer in the Pacific Hospital suffering from a fractured skull.

Owing to the unexplained delay in reporting the case, and to the fact that the alleged assault took place in a well lighted section of the park, the officials are working on the theory that Messer's injuries may have resulted from an encounter with a jealous rival instead of a highwayman.

MURDER UNCOVERED BY BOYS' GRUESOME FIND

NEW YORK, April 3.—Boys playing in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street found a cigar box which contained a right hand and a left foot from the body of a man. Coroner Holtzhauser expressed the opinion that Messer's hand was committed. On the third finger of the hand was a gold ring bearing the initials "A. F."

When the boys kicked open the box scraps of a letter flew out. The police recovered a few of these, making out on one of them in heavy English scrawls "cuse," apparently part of the word "accuse." Detectives believe the letter was written by a murderer to the victim.

A clew to the identity of the victim was suggested by the bureau of identification, where the records show that Alfred Fely, a 15-year-old boy, had been missing since December 27. It was noted that the boy's initials corresponded to those on the ring on the dismembered hand.

S.S.S. A PERFECT CURE FOR SCROFULA

Scrofula belongs to the type of diseases known as blood poison, and is a trouble usually manifesting in childhood. It is often an inherited condition springing from some specific disease of ancestors. The ordinary symptoms of Scrofula are swollen glands about the neck, sores and ulcers on the body, scalp diseases, skin affections, weak eyes, poor physical development, etc.

The disease being deeply rooted in the blood, often attacks the bones if the poison is not removed from the circulation, and this should be seriously considered in the case of any child who shows symptoms of having scrofulous blood. Some persons who inherit Scrofula reach maturity before the trouble develops, but being bred in the circulation, the disease is bound to show itself in some form.

Frequently a debilitating spell of sickness which depletes and weakens the system offers a favorable opportunity for the disease to manifest itself. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only method of treatment that can be of any value; the scrofulous poison must be removed from the circulation.

S.S.S. has cured thousands of cases of Scrofula. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and by going down into the circulation and ridding it of the scrofulous germs, and enriching the blood by the addition of healthful corpuscles, S.S.S. cures the disease permanently. S.S.S. is a purely vegetable remedy, and is perfectly safe for children. If you or your child have any symptoms of Scrofula, begin the use of S.S.S. at once, and get the destructive disease forever removed from the system. Book on the blood, and any medical advice free. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

tional white satin and lace, a retinue of bridesmaids had been chosen and their gowns had been designed to harmonize with a basal color scheme and to vie with the magnificence of the ushers in their gold-decked full-dress uniforms.

Trinity Church was to have been beautifully decorated in Easter lilies and several hundred guests were expected to be present at the ceremony, but orders from Washington changed all these plans and ordered the Thirtieth United States Infantry to the south, so the wedding was solemnized in San Diego and a supper served at the U. CHICAGO, April 2.—One hundred and fifteen women students of Northwestern University have gone on strike. They are residents of Willard Hall, and have clashed with Miss Mary Ross Potter, Dean of Women at Northwestern, and also preceptress at Willard Hall.

The strikers have been denied the privilege of eating their meals in the dormitory and a group of them have been going to Evanston restaurants.

The trouble is said to have originated from an April fool's day prank played Friday night. Some of the girls entered the dining room at night and hung up silverware and some of the cooking utensils on hooks along the walls. Next morning the cooks refused to take them down.

According to the account given to the authorities, Bell and a friend were target shooting on the lake when a party of Everett people, among whom was Mrs. Watson, happened along. The newcomers asked permission to try their skill with the rifle and while Bell was marking the target the Watsons fired the bullet passing through the young man's body. He died in a few minutes. ARRIVES TOO LATE TO SAVE HIS WIFE FROM SUICIDE

Message of Death Calls Husband Home in Time to Hear Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Notified by telephone that his wife intended to commit suicide, Charles A. Beck, accompanied by policemen hurried to the home of Mrs. Beck, at 48 Eldridge street, and arrived there just in time to hear the fatal shot. When they burst into the room they found Mrs. Beck lying on the floor, with her 4-year-old daughter crying over her. The woman was bleeding from a wound in her mouth, and she died as she was being taken to the central emergency hospital.

Beck, who is a teamster, has been separated from his wife for about five months. Last night she sent him a telephone message telling him to come and get their little daughter, Mary, as she was going to kill herself. Beck received the message shortly before midnight. He ran to the southern police station, where officers were detailed to accompany him to his former home. The husband and policemen were ascending the stairs leading to Mrs. Beck's flat when they heard the shot.

Divorce proceedings had been begun and the case was on the calendar for Wednesday morning in the Superior Court. Mrs. Beck was 30 years old. Her husband believes she was brooding over their marital troubles.

Young Leeds Elopes

NEW YORK, April 3.—William Stuart Leeds, heir to a large part of the $10,000,000 left by his father, William B. Leeds, the tinplate king, eloped on March 14 with Mrs. May Joyce, a Boston divorcee. The couple were married at Nashua, the New Hampshire Gretna Green, by City Clerk Cyren.

Leeds' mother is Mrs. Annie S. Leeds, who has a beautiful summer home at Lakewood, N. J., and a New York residence at 155 West Fifty-eighth street. Mrs. Leeds, who it was reported, received $1,000,000 when she divorced the tinplate king in 1919, directly after which Leeds married Mrs. Nommie May Stewart of Cleveland. The Cleveland beauty said the first news of her son's marriage, was gleaned from the bare announcements in the newspapers.

Young Leeds was a member of the class of 1919 at Harvard, but left college in his sophomore year. His first met Mrs. Joyce in the fall of 1916, when he entered the university. During the three years Leeds spent at Harvard he paid devoted attention to the pretty young divorcee. His mother tried vainly to discourage the match.

Crowd Cheers Diva

NEW YORK, April 3.—Mme Tetrazzini gave her farewell concert last night under the direction of Manager William H. Leahy before one of the most remarkable audiences ever assembled in New York.

The huge Hippodrome, with a seating capacity of 6000, was entirely inadequate and the overflow was seated on the stage in a semicircle. Nathan Franck's orchestra was compressed into a small circle with a little path in front of the stage for Mme Tetrazzini.

The presence of a great crowd proved a true inspiration to Mme. Tetrazzini, and she overcame even her good fortune in responding to their plaudits. The crowd caught her high spirits, and the scene after some of her numbers was more like a gala night in some Latin country than the demonstration of a New York audience. The enthusiasm was almost like a riot at the close of the performance.

At times the audience stood up and cheered wildly. After the performance Mme Tetrazzini held a reception on the stage, hundreds crowding to grasp her hand.

BISHOP'S DAUGHTER PREDICTS GREAT THINGS FOR HOTEL

MRS. MASON DAVIDGE, daughter of the late Bishop Potter, who is an expert in hotel decorating and furnishing.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The hotel of tomorrow will be an educational factor in American life. So says Mrs. Mason C. Davidge, daughter of the late Bishop Henry C. Potter, and herself an expert in hotel decoration and furnishings. Mrs. Davidge, who has lately furnished a half million dollar hotel at Cooperstown, N. Y., and other important hotels and clubhouses, is a stickler for all the creature comforts, in planning and the equipment of such buildings. But while insisting that tables and clothes presses and chairs must touch the maximum of convenience and durability, Mrs. Davidge exacts also a standard of artistic beauty and harmony.

"In France," she says, "the theater is a public model in the lessons of life, in manners, in the French language. Why should not the hotel, in America, be a source of information and suggestion, in public taste? From its designs and furnishings travelers and the community will draw ideas that will mean something to them in their homes."

EDUCATIONAL MUSEUM.

"The hotel of tomorrow in a hundred American cities will be, in a sense, an educational museum, devoted to the art of appropriate living. And remember that it will, before all else, be inviting and comfortable."

"Will this cost more?"

"It should not," says Mrs. Davidge. "It will be simply a case of more brains and less money, and of expert control. A trained specialist is needed to coordinate a scheme of colors and to choose a decorative style or period for the furnishings of a building as much as the architect himself is needed. How else is the result to express the character desired for the hotel or club?"

"In dealing with my own clients I have noticed a marked change in the past few years, and a strong tendency among progressive hotel men not only to appreciate artistic individuality and correctness in furnishings, but to demand it. Why? Because it pays. The hotel that has distinction and congruity of style is agreeably remembered by guests and is talked about by travelers, while the commonplace hotel is forgotten. This is in fact, glorified advertising. American hotel managers and their backers are too astute not to perceive this and I believe the results will become increasingly evident, especially in the middle west and the far west."

SETS HIGH STANDARD.

Mrs. Davidge, though she sets high standards for her clients, does not demand the impractical. "If we tried to furnish hotel rooms with genuine Jacobean or Tudor or Queen Anne pieces," she remarks, "the cost would run into perfectly hopeless figures. And there is not enough really antique furniture in existence to go round. But you can take the antique as a model and reproduce its lines and colorings, even though you use a cheaper wood and stain it. It is possible today to transform wood color through and through so that the colors follow the grain. And we can modify the old designs, and so get endless variety with distinction and without undue expense."

"To illustrate what I mean by appropriate design, I will cite the case of a western hotel man who once told me that he wished to furnish part of his new building in the style of Louis XVI. I told him promptly that this would be wholly against the spirit and traditions of the community in which the hotel was situated. This was a new idea to him, but he soon perceived that the early English was the only style that would accord with the inherited taste of the people of his city. I told him that I had lived in the west myself and he saw that I understood American life in spite of years of New York and Paris."

OPENS STUDIOS.

To broaden the scope of her decorating and furnishing work, which is not confined to hotels, but includes clubs and residences as well, Mrs. Davidge has lately opened the Coventry Studios, in the heart of busy uptown New York, on Madison avenue near Forty-second street. In the same building and allied with the Coventry Studios is the Madison Art Gallery, wherein talented American painters and sculptors can show their work under conditions not obtainable in the purely commercial galleries.

The Madison Art Gallery was established by Mrs. Davidge as an altruistic enterprise two years ago, and it has met with the cordial co-operation of artists and collectors.

Earlier organizations attesting Mrs. Davidge's executive ability and initiative were the Holiday House, the first summer boarding place for New York working girls, and a club in the city for these girls. But today it is the large art movement in the affairs of every day life that chiefly interests her. A bit in every American town that needs it, a hotel that is not a mere barracks, but a point where comfort, good taste and good service are combined, and from which educational influences in artistic artistry is radiated—this is the object for which Mrs. Davidge is chiefly working.

WARE WOMAN, NEARING CRIES

NEW YORK.—As the result of a few statements made concerning women, Dr. Scott Nearing, of the economic department of the University of Pennsylvania, is in bad with the women, particularly those who like to dress well.

Dr. Nearing said:

"If the women of today continue to be the economic burdens to men they are now, they will ruin this country, just as the dissolute women of Rome ruined that empire."

"The wife no longer contributes to the family income by creating values. With the increased standards of elaborate

THEY SPONGE ON MEN, DECLARES EDUCATOR.

PHILADELPHIA.—In an address to the Plastic Club Professor Scott Nearing of the University of Pennsylvania gave a caustic summing up of "votes for women."

He declared that women "are social parasites, and until they cease to be so there is no use attempting to consider them in a serious light."

The meeting in which his address was made was attended by many women, a large part of whom were advocates of equal suffrage.

"What are you going to do with your freedom and your right to vote when you get it?" asked Dr. Nearing. "While the men are out working and making money you are sitting here at the Plastic Club listening to me talk. Are you doing your full duty to God and man when you fritter away time on embroidery or the making of a bit of Irish lace?"

"Back in the beginning of the world women were slaves," the speaker continued. "Then, finally, came a state of co-operative labor, with the cook stove and the loom. But now, women have become social parasites. I hope the next stage will be better, but that is up to you women, who are clamoring so earnestly for votes. As it is now, man is the producer; woman the non-producer."

"Man bears the burden; woman, or rather women like you, get the fun. Why, the whole concept of the women of the upper and middle classes is to sponge on the men. Unless you become producers, the economic necessity for your existence will depart, and you will cease to exist. Nature will find a way."

"What are you going to do with the boundless leisure you have now and the added leisure that may come with votes? You must either continue to use it for selfish ends, as you do now, or turn your attention to some useful trade. Why, from 30 to 60 per cent of your time is taken up in personal adornment, fixing your hair, etc."

Professor Nearing said that in his opinion the women of this country could ruin the United States, just as the women of Rome had ruined that empire, by failing in their duty and not producing enough Roman captains for the legions.

HUBBYS, GOOD, BAD AND INDIFFERENT, READ ABOUT THEM

WILKES-BARRE.—Alderman Donohue of this city laid down the law to husbands when he declared that it is the duty of the husband to wash and dress the baby if his wife is too busy with other household duties to give the child her attention. The fact that he was occasionally required to wash the infant was one of the causes which led Arthur Goulson of Plymouth to leave his wife and child and go to live with his mother. The wife followed him, and alleged that her mother assaulted him, had her arrested. The story came out at the hearing before Alderman Donohue today, and he explained with emphasis to Goulson what he considered the duties of a father and advised him to return to his wife and child and perform these duties.

POUGHKEEPSIE.—William Cobb, owner of a hotel in Fishkill Landing, nearly fainted when his wife, who was left in New England twenty-five years ago, called at his hotel and reclaimed him. Cobb didn't take kindly to her advances and she caused his arrest. Until a few days ago Mrs. Cobb had heard no word from her husband since the day he disappeared. Six years ago he came to Dutchess county and opened the hotel. Both Cobb and his wife have remained single. In fact, Mrs. Cobb says she doesn't want her husband back, but she will fight in the courts to compel him to support her.

WASHINGTON.—Edward Pittis, a long time clerk in the Pension Bureau, has been sued for maintenance by his wife. The complaint establishes a new record for length in cases of that nature. It covers more than twenty typewritten pages.

Mrs. Pittis, who gives her age as 65, declares her husband claimed she was possessed of the devil, told her God had departed from her and charged that she made his home a foretaste of perdition. In addition to the reflections cast on her, Mrs. Pittis says, her husband on various occasions persisted in following her around the flat where they lived, reading loudly from the Bible and religious works, admonishing her to give heed to certain passages selected by him, which in his opinion suited her spiritual needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Pittis have been married more than forty-five years.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZE TO BOOST MOTT'S CAMPAIGN

'KEEP UP GOOD WORK, IS SLOGAN

Invitations to Luncheon Are Sent Broadcast Throughout the City.

H. C. Capwell Pleads for Continuation of Administration's efforts.

A luncheon has been announced to be held at the Forum Cafe Tuesday at 12:15 p. m., at which the business men of Oakland will take steps to do some effective work to secure the re-election of Mayor Mott.

The notice has been sent out by a committee consisting of T. W. Corcoran, James P. Edgerly, M. M. Hoffman, Charles L. Smith and C. M. Wood. "Oakland is moving forward—let's keep up the motion," says the notice, and all merchants and business men generally are invited.

CAPWELL TO WORK.

"It seems to be but good business to keep up the splendid program of improvement and progressive policies that are now being carried out by the Mott administration," said H. C. Capwell this morning. "I am heartily in accord with the purpose of organizing the business men for effective work during this campaign which means so much to Oakland."

'I'LL BE HERE AGAIN IN 1915,' SAYS J. W. FOLK

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—"I'll be here again in 1915," were the words of Joseph W. Folk, former governor of Missouri, after taking his first survey of the city since the disaster in 1906. Ex-Governor Folk is registered at the Hotel Bern and last night expressed his amazement at the rapid growth of the city. He also expressed his pleasure at the wave of political reform throughout the state.

He will make a tour of the bay cities today and will return in time to deliver an address to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association on Friday evening. His subject will be "Soldiers of Peace."

Mayor Mott Outlines the Work That the Municipality Has Done and Is Still to Accomplish

There was a meeting of the Columbus Italian Civic Club at its headquarters, corner of Forty-seventh street and Shattuck avenue, yesterday afternoon, at which speeches were made by candidates who are running for offices under the new charter, which are to be filed at the general city election in May next. The club in question has been formed for the purpose of imparting information to people of Italian birth, to enable them to take up their papers or citizenship in this country and at the same time to inspire them to become good citizens of the United States. The organization has a membership of several hundred and is doing a great deal of good along the lines which it has elected to follow.

CANDIDATES INVITED.

It was for the purpose of enabling the members to become acquainted with the various questions that are at issue in the present campaign that the management of the club invited several of the candidates to appear and discuss those questions in a free and dispassionate manner. Among the candidates present were: Mayor Frank K. Mott, candidate for re-election; City Engineer Turner, candidate for commissioner No. 3; Phillip Kelly, candidate for commissioner No. 2; George Angell, candidate for commissioner No. 1; City Treasurer J. J. Baccus, candidate for commissioner No. 1; Councilman R. C. Vese, candidate for commissioner No. 4; Councilman Harold Everhart, candidate for commissioner No. 4; Councilman W. J. McCarthy, candidate for commissioner No. 2.

ADDRESS BY MAYOR.

Mayor Mott spoke modestly of the work which had been done for the advancement of the city during the past year under the present administration which had been made possible by the cheerful co-operation of the people who he was addressing and other good citizens in various parts of the city. While there had been a great deal done, there still remained more to be accomplished. What remained to be done should be performed in harmony with the design employed in the introduction of the new charter, which was to be realized from the expenditure of both money and effort which had already been made.

He told of the possibilities of the city of its increase in population, the great advancement in its business and the continued activity in the industrial sections, which were giving employment to hundreds of skilled men, and in inspiring them to the position of mayor save to continue the work of development in all parts of the city. He had practically devoted the greater part of his time to the introduction of the new charter and he proposed to devote no less energetic in the future. He gratefully acknowledged the assistance of the members of the northern part of the city, and pledged himself to leave nothing undone in the event of his re-election in

RAILROADS WIN FROM OKLAHOMA

United States Supreme Court Says Latter Must Enforce Own Laws.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Oklahoma must enforce its own liquor laws, said Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court in substance today, when he handed down an opinion in which the court declined to enjoin all the railroads entering the portion of the state which formerly was Indian Territory, from introducing or conveying intoxicating liquors into that section.

The state asked the injunction on the ground that congress had required that an anti-liquor provision affecting the old Indian Territory, be incorporated in the Oklahoma constitution, which was done. Justice Harlan held that relief under the provision must be procured in the state courts.

'POP' FLOYD DIES FROM WOUND

Restaurant Man Victim of Bartender's Pistol Fired During Quarrel.

Wife of Accused Slayer Falls in Faint at Hearing — Charge.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Jefferson D. Floyd, known as "Pop" Floyd, one of the best known cafe proprietors and saloon men in this city, and for more than a quarter of a century a familiar figure in the wholesale district, died at 1:20 this morning as the result of being shot earlier in the evening by Milton Humphreys, his bartender.

Humphreys was booked at 2:30 a. m. for murder.

According to the best evidence in the hands of the police, a duel was responsible for the killing, although it is claimed that Humphreys was the aggressor, he having been accused by Floyd of intoxication. According to Floyd, who made a dying statement to the bond and warrant clerk, he entered his saloon and demonstrated with Humphreys over the fact that he had been drinking. The bartender showed fight and the two closed in on each other. Finally several shots were fired, and Floyd fell with a wound in the abdomen. One of the combatants had held a derringer and the other a revolver of large calibre.

SLAYER'S NOSE BROKEN.

Humphreys had received a broken nose and a cut on the forehead, thus bearing out his story of the struggle. Floyd was rushed to the Harbor hospital, and later transferred to Hahnemann hospital for an operation. He gradually weakened, however, and sank until death came during the early morning hours.

A pathetic scene was witnessed at the prison when Humphreys was first booked, prior to Floyd's death, with assault to murder. Mrs. Humphreys, at sound of the charge, fell in a faint.

Humphreys appeared in Judge Shortall's court this morning and his case was continued until tomorrow. He looked extremely used up, his face was scarred and cut, and he appeared to be all broken up over the result of the affray.

Just one hour prior to the death of Jefferson D. Floyd, known as "Pop" Floyd, his will was drawn up at his bedside by Attorney Edward Lande. This was filed for probate at noon and leaves his entire estate, amounting to $30,000, to his wife and two sons.

REBELS AWAIT ATTACK OF FEDERALS

Insurgent Chief Stanley Is Now Located With Staff in Mexicali.

Reported That 500 Regulars With Machine Gun Are on March to City.

MEXICALI, Mexico, April 3.—General Stanley, commander-in-chief of the rebels in Lower California, established his staff headquarters in Mexicali today and hereafter will conduct all of his operations against the federal forces from this place. Francisco Quijida, former commander of the rebel provo guard here, returned today from Picachos Pass, whither he was sent last week by the rebel chief, and reported that the federals were nowhere in sight.

The dispatches from Tecate stated that Colonel Mayot, at the head of 500 federal troops with machine guns, was advancing on Mexicali by that route. The present whereabouts of the federal force is as much a mystery as ever in Mexicali. It is considered certain, however, that they are coming slowly from some direction to the south or west toward the rebel stronghold. It is reported here, though not confirmed, that the wound received by Simon Berthold at Alamo on March 22, in a brush there with federals, has taken a turn for the worse and that he may have to be brought across the line into the United States for treatment.

Maderos in El Paso, Presumably Upon a Mission of Peace

EL PASO, Tex., April 3.—Interest here in the Mexican war situation today centers in Francisco I. Madero Sr., and Alfonso Madero, who arrived in El Paso last night, presumably on a mission of peace.

While maintaining a complete silence regarding the reason for their presence, the father and brother of the insurgent leader intimated that developments might be expected within the next few days, and it is believed that they are here to await arrival of messengers from the insurgent chief bringing terms upon which he will consent to a cessation of hostilities. That these terms must be formulated by the men who are in the field was declared by Alfonso Madero last night.

WILL EXAMINE PAPERS.

Detectives McGowan and McLaughlin will make a thorough examination of all the papers that they have found in their investigations. Up to the present they have had only an opportunity to glance hastily over the piles, acting quickly on what information could be gathered on the spur of the moment.

"We will not be satisfied," said McGowan, "until we have examined every scrap. The case is a peculiar one, and there is being an accessory to the murder of John D. Powell, the examination of Powell's person, the examination indicating that the accused man wrote the note for the purpose of bearing out a suicidal theory."

SANTA ROSA, April 3.—Another clue connecting L. C. Chisholm with the murder of John D. Powell was obtained yesterday by the comparison of his handwriting with that of a note found on Powell's person, the examination indicating that the accused man wrote the note for the purpose of bearing out a suicidal theory.

The note was found by Sheriff Smith on the leaf of a notebook in Powell's pocket and reads as follows:

"To Blanche — What is the District Attorney Lea believes the note was merely a blind for the purpose of throwing officials off the scent."

Mrs. Powell, who was arrested and suspected of being an accessory to the murder of her husband, is kept hidden. She was not taken to the county jail when brought here, but is being detained at a private residence. Sheriff Smith, as well as District Attorney Lea, declare they do not know where she is.

Although she has been questioned at length by District Attorney Lea, he states that she gave no further information than that which she had given the police of San Francisco.

BRAVE POLICEMAN
RESCUES WOMAN

Mrs. W. S. Clark Is Carried Through Smoke and Flames to Safety.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Mrs. W. S. Rice, who occupied a flat on the fourth floor of a building at 28 Clyde street, would have been burned to death in a fire which swept the flats at 4 o'clock yesterday morning but for the bravery of Patrolman John Annear, who carried the woman through the smoke-filled halls to safety just as the entire rear portion of the building became a mass of flames. The others in the house, dressed only in their night clothes, had hastened down the front steps to the sidewalk. Some one exclaimed that there was a woman on the top floor unable to escape, and Patrolman Annear, fighting his way through the smoke and flames, found Mrs. Rice hysterical from fright and running blindly about in the front room of her flat. With difficulty, the patrolman calmed her and, wrapping a heavy quilt about her, carried her, staggering under her weight, down the four flights of stairs, himself nearly suffocated from the smoke.

Two parrots and a canary, owned by Mrs. Rice, were sacrificed to the flames, and a dog owned by Mrs. M. M. Blue died of fright. Mrs. Blue had three flats furnished and estimates her loss at $3000, with no insurance. The damage to the building will amount to several thousand dollars.

John Wylie, who owns the building, and Thomas Thompson, a roomer, are suffering from sprained ankles from leaping through second story windows on being awakened by the fire.

DUFFY ON TRIAL
AFTER 4 YEARS

Accused Forger Comes Into Court After a Long Wait.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Peter M. Duffy, indicted four years ago for forgery by the Oliver grand jury, was brought to trial before Superior Judge Lawlor this morning. Duffy, it is alleged, was mixed up with one of the hoodlums, supervisors, Ferdinand P. Nicholas, in a furniture deal. According to the allegation, his reward, if everything went right, was to have been a bed. Nicholas' case was dismissed on motion of District Attorney Langdon and Duffy finally faces his accusers. The direct charge against him is that he testified falsely before the grand jury.

DYING, SAYS SHE'S A WIFE.
WINSTEAD, Conn.—Just before her death Nina Smith, 24 years old, of Riverside, told her physician, Dr. J. Dobson, that she had been Mrs. Emmett Wilcox for the last three years. She said the marriage was performed in New York state.

Her father and mother died within a few days of each other early in the winter, unaware of their daughter's marriage. She had intended to reveal the secret to them, but their illness became so grave she decided not to do so.

'BLUES' MEET UTTER ROUT
AT THE BELL THIS WEEK

EDDIE GIRARD in "Dooley and the Diamond" at the Bell Theater.

For more years than it is really kind to tell Eddie Girard, who is the chief laugh-maker at the Bell Theater this week, has stood for all that is related to fun in vaudeville. The assassination of "Blue Devils" has been his trade and he has made for himself a remarkable record. In Jessie Gardner he has a partner who is in his own class, and the pair of them are qualifying as one of the biggest laughs of the season in their farce, "Dooley and the Diamond." Girard shows as the Irish policeman, which is enough said to prepare for an irresistible line of comedy that is scintillating with bright tid-bits every second they are in front. Girard's famous transformation into a chattering vaudeville attendant in a gymnastic act, but that is because so much of this is of the very ordinary mediocre calibre. However, there are exceptions, and when you see the three Alex, deservedly a big feature of this week's show, you will agree that there is something new even in acrobatic acts.

MARVELS OF STRENGTH.
These three are splendid human exhibits, marvels of strength and physical construction. It is really a highly finished sensational European equilibristic novelty in which the trio all work fast and hard and introduce a number of genuine thrillers that will cause you to hold your breath in suspense. It is an offering that has the stamp of class all over it, and no matter how satiated you may be with acrobatics, gymnastics, etc., you will find real pleasure and enjoyment in watching these three graceful and daring men.

Billy Barron appears to you like a little old eccentric musician in his makeup and unfolds before he has more than put hand to instrument that he is a real top-notch in the business. He has highly developed the gift of humor and both makeup and method are good for laughs innumerable.

HUMOR IS NATURAL.
John Hamilton is another artist, although of a different stripe, so to speak, who combines a natural humor with his ability to create decidedly impressionistic landscapes at a moment's notice. With an outlay of paints and brushes he chortles around, a dab here, a dab there, until after a moment's darkness on the stage he is disclosed posing as the central figure in the pictures he has created. There is a rare singing act in the offering of the Six Gypsy Singers of the usual type and character of the traveling Gypsy bands. Brown and Wilcox are a very high class singing and dancing duo, an act that is well handled, well dressed and altogether very satisfactory. Miss Wilcox is very clever in a juvenile take-off that is redolent of the characteristics of the young idea. Lefevre and St. John show the "Show Girl" apparently as she appears behind the scenes. Lefevre is the irrepressible property man, while Miss St. John gives us an idea of the "jazz" show girl. Excellent motion pictures complete the bill.

Work on Veto Bill Begins in House Before Great Crowd.

LONDON, April 3.—The real work on the veto bill designed to restrict the powers over legislation of the House of Lords was begun today with the opening of the committee stage in the house of committee.

The scene in the House indicated the intensity of interest. Every available ticket of admission had been disposed of days before.

The debate will be long and keen. Already more than 1000 amendments have been prepared. It is the avowed intention of the government to send the measure to the upper chamber by the middle of May, but veteran members of Parliament doubt the possibility of this.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Their faces covered with jam, and twenty-four jars of that toothsome commodity scattered around the apartment, two boys, George Lepken and Fred Wierberg, were taken into custody by Policemen Jurgens last night. The lads had hired a room in the Denver house, and had proceeded to consume the jelly. Jurgens was notified, and had no trouble in arresting them. Where they obtained the jam has not been revealed.

HIS BRIDAL GIFT $10 FINE.
STAMFORD, Conn.—Before he began his honeymoon Isador Canvasser had to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Canvasser was married the night before to Miss Ida Agree in the Casino before a large company of friends. Early in the afternoon he went to New York for wedding finery and was arrested for riding on Samuel Zatklin's commutation card.

Sir Oliver Lodge Points to Some Things That Could Not Be Arbitrated.

GERMANY NOW SEEKING MEDITERRANEAN OUTLET

New Fleet Intended to Overawe France and Italy, He Says.

LONDON, April 3.—Sir Oliver Lodge, writer and principal of the University of Birmingham, in a lengthy review of the possibilities for universal arbitration published today, holds that while everything arbitral should be arbitrated, there are certain things which no nation would consent to submit to arbitration.

For instance he does not believe the United States would agree to arbitrate the matter should an European power be unwise enough to interfere in the event that difficulty arose between the German government and Mexico. Similarly England would never accept arbitration should a foreign power insist on home rule for Ireland, or if France desired to arbitrate an issue in Egypt.

EYES ON GERMANY.

Touching on the position of Germany, Sir Oliver foresees in the near future the operation of a German outlet to the Mediterranean occupying the center of the stage in the world politics. This, he also considers, quite outside the possibility of arbitration, as he believes that to secure such an outlet has been a long standing secret policy of the German government.

In naval and military circles the suggestion has been advanced privately, more than once that the German fleet was in the Mediterranean and not the North Sea and Sir Oliver now openly voices the same idea, suggesting that on the death of the Austrian Emperor, Germany will make a great effort to secure a seaport in the Atlantic with territorial connection with Germany.

TO OVERAWE ITALY.
The new German fleet, the writer contends, is intended to overawe Italy and France in order that the operation may be carried out peacefully in spite of their protests. In such an event he maintains Great Britain should keep hands off and not attempt to curb Germany's just colonial ambitions.

FOSTER'S PREDICTION.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Representative Foster of Vermont ranking minority member of the House committee on foreign affairs, predicted today that arbitration treaties would be negotiated between four of the great powers of the world, the United States to take a leading part in framing the negotiations.

Foster named the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan as the powers that would enter into such agreements. Eventually, he said, the other powers of the world would be forced to take similar action. Foster said that he had had personal conversations with the Mayor of Tokio and other Japanese of prominence and that he believed the sentiment in Japan was in favor of such agreements.

PASADENA HOLDS
ANNUAL ELECTION

Three in Field for Mayoralty of Southern California City.

PASADENA, Cal., April 3.—After a brief but hotly contested campaign Pasadena is today holding a municipal election for city officers. There are three candidates for mayor in the field, all standing much on the same platform, the issue turning largely on the personalities of the men.

The two leading candidates are William Thum, the candidate of the Municipal Light League, and R. L. Metcalf, who is running at the behest of a number of prominent citizens. The Socialists have a candidate in the field and are expected to poll about 600 votes out of a probable total of 4000.

Thum conducted his campaign chiefly on the issue of maintaining and extending the present municipal lighting system. Metcalf, while professing similar views on municipal ownership, waged his fight on the issue of proposed annexation with Los Angeles, and vigorously opposed the plan. Thum denied that annexation was an issue.

RICHARDSON OF S. P. CO.
GENERAL AGENT T. C. P. A.

L. Richardson, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific Company, was appointed general agent of the Trans-Continental Passenger Association in Oakland. The association made Oakland a validating point for summer and convention rate tickets from Eastern points.

All special summer rates to and from the East are made by roads west of Chicago, there being no reductions east of that point except occasionally in connection with a convention.

Oakland being a validating point, will bring hundreds of travelers here, who heretofore went to San Francisco or some other city.

Frank Manuel Receives Fatal Injuries While Trying to Cross Track.

While attempting to cross the Western Pacific track with his wagon at Fruitvale avenue yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock, Frank Manuel, residing in Walnut street, Alameda, was struck by a westbound train and sustained injuries from which he died at the Receiving Hospital three hours later.

The wagon he drove was reduced to kindling wood. A depressed fracture of the skull was the fatal injury, although aside from this Manuel sustained a broken jaw and was badly cut about the head and body.

Hotelling will be seen as a star in "The Melting Pot."

The popularity of the society with that of the production points toward a great success for the event.

The tickets have been on sale since last Monday and the run upon the house for this night has been big.

The Judeans are exerting every effort to make this a great success. Every member of the society has tickets on sale for the accommodation of their friends. Tickets can also be secured through the box office or at M. J. Schoenfeld's, 1008 Broadway. The committee in charge of the affair are: E. Esenberg, chairman; M. J. Schoenfeld, Louis Weiss, Percy Cohn, M. Goldman and L. Smook.
